Evaluating Sustainable Development Giving People A Voice In Their Destiny:

Evaluating Sustainable Development Okechukwu Ukaga, 2004 Impact Assessment and Sustainable Development Clive George, Colin H. Kirkpatrick, 2007-01-01 Impact assessment of various types is now a widely used policy tool This volume helpfully brings together conceptual discussions and case studies to illustrate how impact assessment can be used to address issues of sustainability It should be of considerable interest both to academic researchers and to practitioners concerned with the implementation of policies to support sustainable development John Weiss University of Bradford UK The translation of the principle of sustainable development into policy and practice and the evaluation of the outcomes of these strategic interventions are some of the most pressing challenges facing policymakers in Europe and beyond By exploring the conceptual and methodological issues relating to the evaluation of sustainable development and analysing European practice and experience the sixteen chapters in this volume provide a coherent and integrated contribution to our understanding of these issues This volume will be of interest to researchers policy analysts and practitioners in the area of impact assessment and sustainable development Decision-Making for a Sustainable Environment Chris Maser, 2012-07-26 Increasingly environmental decision making is like playing a multidimensional game of chess With interactions between the atmosphere the litho hydrosphere and the biosphere the game is at once a measure of complexity uncertainty interdisciplinary acuity social environmental sustainability and social justice for all generations As such it Sustainable Development Okechukwu Ukaga, Chris Maser, Michael Reichenbach, 2010-01-07 Coined in the 1970s the term sustainable development and the ideas behind it have enjoyed varying amounts of popularity over the years And while dire predictions about the full impacts of global warming are not known nor can they be known What we do know is that to be sustainable all societies must adjust to new realities which include chan Sustainable Urban Development Volume 4 Ian Cooper, 2008

Universities and the Sustainable Development Future Peter H. Koehn, Juha I. Uitto, 2017-04-07 This study provides institutions of higher learning around the world with new and inclusive guidelines that can be applied contextually to produce credible evidence regarding the outcome and impact of their teaching research societal outreach governance and partnering activities with regard to sustainable development The 2015 International Year of Evaluation is behind us and post 2015 Sustainable Development Goals are coming into play Donors the public international organizations and higher education participants need to know if universities are advancing sustainable development Although university involvement in sustainable development research teaching and outreach has increased substantially systematic learning from higher education engagements has been disappointing and the extent to which university initiatives have influenced sustainable development particularly in the Global South is widely contested This book presents and demonstrates the utility of a flexible framework that will inspire substantial contextually based improvements in the ways universities evaluate and therefore activate and improve their sustainable development undertakings It provides a cutting edge resource for students scholars university leaders and policy drivers at all levels of governance who are concerned with contemporary higher education sustainable development climate change and evaluation challenges Handbook on Evaluation Reinhard

Stockmann,2024-08-06 In this Handbook Reinhard Stockmann and other esteemed experts in the field provide a systematic and comprehensive exploration into the planning process implementation and utilisation of evaluations Covering the process and individual steps of evaluation in detail in chronological order and in terms of practical application it identifies the characteristics and standards that distinguish a professionally and competently conducted evaluation Brownfield Sites

III C. A. Brebbia,2006 This book focuses on the problems facing the public and private sectors and the engineering and scientific communities in terms of the decrease of available new land for development purposes Given the economic and social benefits of brownfields redevelopment there is a need for guidance on processes that ensure the acceptability and therefore viability of such redevelopment The preparation of the guidance requires further research as well as the sharing of information lessons and experience among experts in this field Featuring papers from the Third International Conference on Prevention Assessment Rehabilitation and Development of Brownfield Sites the text will be vital to practitioners and businessmen in industry and commerce as well as those in research organisations interested in the problems facing the prevention assessment rehabilitation and development of brownfields The papers published in the book are grouped into the following sections Development Issues Environmental Assessment Risk Assessment and Management Cleanup Methodologies Case Studies Community and Public Involvement Lessons from the Field Modelling and Assessment Monitoring of Contaminated Sites The Perpetual Consequences of Fear and Violence Chris Maser,2004

Arguing that current conflicts in the war on terrorism are doing tremendous damage to future generations this timely analysis draws on the work of non violent leaders like Gandhi to provide alternatives to responding to increased levels of fear and anxiety with violence Seizing on the surprising example of Northwest salmon as a paradigm contemporary clashes like the War on Terror are dissected with an eye toward the political ecosystems they endanger Also included is a meditation on what citizens can do to change their own political ecosystems by considering the long term political and ecological effects of the even the smallest decisions

Sustainable Development in Europe Uwe Schubert,Eckhard Störmer,2007 This is a concise analysis of the current state of the art of evaluating sustainable development policies programmes and projects in Europe Sustainable

Brownfield Regeneration Timothy J. Dixon,2007-10-22 Sustainable Brownfield Regeneration presents a comprehensive account of UK policies processes and practices in brownfield regeneration and takes an integrated and theoretically grounded approach to highlight best practice The book has two principal aims The first is to examine the ways in which science and social science research disciplines can be brought together to help solve important brownfield regeneration issues with a focus on the UK The second is to assess the efficiency and effectiveness of different types of regeneration policy and practice and to show how liveable spaces can be produced from problem places Jacket Our Forest Legacy Chris

Maser,2005 This detailed critique and history of US forest policy and laws asks the question Why are forests essential to human culture Connecting the material with spiritual aspects of human life this study examines the ecological history of forest systems to convey the necessity of a living trust between the forests and humans to ensure the future livelihood of both The key natural elements of the forest such as nutrient cycles weather patterns and air filtering are discussed in relationship to their effect on human life A look at human interactions and intervention with the forest including forest fires the creation of the United States Forest Service and the recent federal Healthy Forests Initiative illustrate how humans have chosen to interact with the forest often to the forest s detriment
