THE TORTOISE AND THE HARE

Read the story below.

A hare once made fun of a tortoise. "What a slow way you have!" he said. "How you creep along!" "Do I?" said the tortoise. "Try a race with me and I'll beat you." "Come! I will race with you." said the hare. "Let us ask the fox," said the tortoise. The fox showed them where they were to start, and how far they were to run. The tortoise lost no time. He started out at once. The hare leaped along for a few minutes till he had left the tortoise far behind. He knew he could reach the mark quickly, so he lay down and took a nap. By and by he awoke, he sprang up and ran as fast as he could. But when he reached the mark the tortoise was there! "Slow and steady wins the race," said the fox.

mobile technologies have become widely adopted as sought after tools in the field of education. The prevalence of technology in early childhood education (ECE) is increasing and teachers both pre-service and in-service are using best practices to integrate tools effectively to improve teaching and learning within the field. This includes settings such as childcare centers, family childcare, and community programs that have both educators and administrators adapting to the use of technology. Therefore, it has become critical to research and explore the best practices of technology integration and successful strategies to improve the use of technology in ECE. The Handbook of Research on Empowering Early Childhood Educators With Technology examines best practices that focus specifically on those that facilitate the development of competencies in teaching young children birth to age 8 and technology integration. The chapters include information on the foundations of technology in early childhood education, content-specific technology applications, developmentally appropriate practices (DAP) for learners using technology, and how to meet diverse learner needs with technology. The target audience for this book is early childhood professionals, teacher educators, pre- and in-service teachers in early childhood settings, faculty and researchers in the field of education, instructional technologists, childcare and elementary school administrators, early education policy organizations, and advocacy groups that are interested in the best practices and successful strategies for implementing technology in ECE.

Research Anthology on Balancing Family-Teacher Partnerships for Student Success Management Association, Information Resources, 2022-10-28. The partnership between families and teachers in education has been overlooked in the past to the detriment of students of all ages. This relationship can have a huge impact on the success of learners and must be examined further to ensure students receive the best education possible. The Research Anthology on Balancing Family Teacher Partnerships for Student Success examines the best practices and challenges of establishing and maintaining a successful relationship between teachers and families. It discusses the history of this relationship as well as future directions that must be considered. Covering key topics such as early childhood education, work habits, assessments, and mentorship, this major reference work is ideal for administrators, principals, industry professionals, researchers, scholars, academicians, practitioners, instructors, and students.

Readers and Writers in Primary Grades Martha Combs, 2006. Readers and Writers in Primary Grades is organized around strategies that benefit elementary school teachers in their efforts to be responsive to the developmental literacy needs of young children. Integrating theory and practice, these strategies offer a balanced look at appropriate literacy activities for K-3 classrooms. Chapter topics include reading aloud to children, shared reading, shared and interactive writing, guided and independent reading, guided and independent writing, literature study, developing phonological awareness, and a strong phonics base integrating phonics and structure and linking children's learning experiences with a balanced literacy program.

56th Yearbook of the National Reading Conference, 2007. ERS Spectrum, 2000. Teaching Elementary Social Studies James A. DuPlass, 2008. Written for the elementary social studies methods course, this interactive program combines features of a textbook and a workbook with thorough integration between the print text and a dynamic web site Increasingly majors in elementary education if not the population at large are more attuned to reading interactive material with relatively brief narrative bulleted items text boxes and targeted messages like web pages rather than traditional denser text To accommodate these preferences the layout of the print text features a larger than usual font an 8 x 11 trim size and spiral binding and the content includes an abundance of bulleted lists shaded text boxes and contemporary graphics The program s interactive approach and flexibility allow the professor to model the kinds of teaching principles and practices that students will want to use in their own elementary school classrooms These principles and practices are integrated throughout the text and include a focus on active learning strategies application of constructivist principles focus on Big Ideas and thinking skills use of the Internet and modeling of Best Practices and Performance based assessments based on INTASC and NCATE standard Thus the book will serve as a springboard for classroom activities web site explorations and or instructor led activities
