Madagascar in the west to Easter Island Pacific Area in the east and from Taiwan Micronesia in the north to New Zealand in the south Austronesia is a language family which dispersed before the Western colonization in many places in the world The Austronesian dispersal in very vast islands area is a huge phenomenon in the history of humankind Groups of Austronesian speaking people had emerged in ca 7000 6000 BP in Taiwan before they migrated in 5000 BP to many places in the world bringing with them the Neolithic Culture characterized by sedentary agricultural societies with animal domestication The Austronesian speaking people are distinguished by Southern Mongoloid Race which had the ability to adapt to various types of natural environment that enabled them to develop through space and time The varied geographic environment where they lived as well as intensive interactions with the outside world had created cultural diversities The population of the Austronesian speakers is more than 380 million people and the Indonesian Archipelago is where most of them develop Indonesia also holds a key position in understanding the Austronesians For this reason the Austronesian studies are crucial in the attempt to understand the Indonesian societies in relation to their current cultural roots history and ethno genesis This book discusses six sessions in the symposium The first session is the prologue the second is the keynote paper which is Austronesia an overview the third is Diaspora and Inter regional Connection the fourth is Regional highlight the fifth is Harimau Cave Research Progress while the sixth session is the epilogue which is a synthesis of 37 papers We hope that this book will inspire more researchers to study Austronesia a field of never ending research in Indonesia

Spirits and Ships Andrea Acri, R. Blench, Alexandra Landmann, 2017 This volume seeks to foreground a borderless history and geography of South Southeast and East Asian littoral zones that would be maritime focused and thereby explore the ancient connections and dynamics of interaction that favoured the encounters among the cultures found throughout the region stretching from the Indian Ocean littorals to the Western Pacific from the early historical period to the present Transcending the artificial boundaries of macro regions and nation states and trying to bridge the arbitrary divide between inherently cosmopolitan high cultures e g Sanskrit Sinitic or Islamicate and local or indigenous cultures this multidisciplinary volume explores the metaphor of Monsoon Asia as a vast geo environmental area inhabited by speakers of numerous language phyla which for millennia has formed an integrated system of littorals where crops goods ideas cosmologies and ritual practices circulated on the sea routes governed by the seasonal monsoon winds The collective body of work presented in the volume describes Monsoon Asia as an ideal theatre for circulatory dynamics of cultural transfer interaction acceptance selection and avoidance and argues that despite the rich ethnic linguistic and sociocultural diversity a shared pattern of values norms and cultural models is discernible throughout the region
