Ebook Citizens Hope Basics Christian Identity:

Citizens of Hope Clayton Oliphint, Mary Brooke Casad, 2016-02-02 Hope is central to our identity as Christians Just as our bodies need food our souls need hope and the supreme hope is found in a relationship with Jesus Christ How does that relationship become real to us In this book and 4 week study readers are guided on a formative path of understanding who God is and who they are as God's children Citizens of Hope is part of The Basics Series An invitation into a more faithful and profound understanding of Christian hope An excellent resource for small groups Sunday school individual meditation and both new and maturing disciples of Jesus Janice Riggle Huie Bishop of the Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church A hope filled description of what it means to be followers of Jesus Christ and a reminder of how God is at work in every aspect of our Christian journey I commend this book to individuals and groups seeking to know how to walk as a citizen of hope in our Twenty first century world Amy Valdez Barker Executive Secretary Connectional Table of The United Methodist Church

The Road to Amazing Clayton Oliphint, Mary Brooke Casad, 2016-02-02 After you invite Christ into your life then what The Road to Amazing part of The Basics Series answers questions about the essentials of Christian practice Used as a standalone study the book provides a suggested course of action that will help you understand who God is and who you are as a child of God Or if you're a small group leader the book can also be used as a 4 week study It is designed to stimulate holy conversation among members of your class and equip them in the faith so they can be sent out to serve in Jesus name Includes a Leader Guide with everything a group leader needs to plan and facilitate the study along with options for tailoring sessions to the time frame and style of each group A well crafted road map to transformation for Christ followers filled with practical lessons and impactful stories that touch the heart and challenge the mind Jane Boatwright Wood President The Foundation for Evangelism Through inspirational stories and insightful interpretation of Scripture we are invited to receive God's grace filled love and share it with others John L Hopkins Bishop of the East Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church Clayton Oliphint and Mary Brook Casad are faithful and fruitful disciples of Jesus Christ who have much to share with others about the basics of Christian practice I have been blessed and challenged by their personal testimonies in this book Zan W Holmes Jr Pastor Emeritus St Luke Community United Methodist Church

Citizens of Hope Leader Guide

Clayton Oliphint, Mary Brooke Casad, 2016-02-02 Learn the basics of Christian discipleship Citizens of Hope Clayton Oliphint, Mary Brooke Casad, 2016 Learn the basics of Christian discipleship Be Renewed Willem van Vlastuin, 2014-02-19 Personal renewal or sanctification belongs to the heart of the Christian life and is becoming more important in our present day culture Listening to Scripture and in conversation with a variety of theologians from the protestant tradition the author presents an up to date concept for a theology of personal renewal In this concept the spiritual union with Christ unio mystica cum Christo is taken as the starting point in order to consider the way in which renewal obtains form in relation to God our neighbour ourselves and the world To place this concept into a historical perspective van Vlastuin begins his study with an investigation of Luther and Calvin's theology concerning the relationship between the union with Christ and personal renewal. The concept is developed within the current theological debate with particular reference to the eschatological character of the Christian life. An important issue concerns the measure of renewal especially in relation to the sinful heart of the believer. In this context the author also deals with the question of sanctification as a position or a process and the relation between the two. In addition the relationship between the Holy Spirit and the human soul in the process of renewal is discussed. Another important issue concerns the abiding significance of the law and the way in which it functions in the Christian life. The exploration of several theological positions leads to a modern concept by which to understand law. The study concludes with an investigation of the relationship between the eschatological Christian life in this present life and the complete revelation of the eschaton.

Geographies of Postsecularity Paul Cloke, Christopher Baker, Callum Sutherland, Andrew Williams, 2019-01-03 This book explores the hopeful possibility that emerging geographies of postsecularity are able to contribute significantly to the understanding of how common life may be shared and how caring for the common goods of social justice, well-being, equality, solidarity, and respect for difference may be imagined and practiced. Drawing on recent geographic theory to recalibrate ideas of the postsecular public sphere, the authors develop the case for postsecularity as a condition of being that is characterised by practices of receptive generosity, rapprochement between religious and secular ethics, and a hopeful re-enchantment and re-shaping of desire towards common life. The authors highlight the contested formation of ethical subjectivity under neoliberalism and the emergence of postsecularity within this process as an ethically attuned politics which changes relations between religion and secularity and animates novel, hopeful imaginations, subjectivities, and praxes as alternatives to neoliberal norms. The spaces and subjectivities of emergent postsecularity are examined through a series of innovative case studies including food banks, drug and alcohol treatment, refugee humanitarian activism in Calais, homeless participatory art projects, community responses to the Christchurch earthquakes in New Zealand, amongst others. The book also traces the global conditions for postsecularity beyond the Western and predominantly Christian secular nexus of engagement. This is a valuable resource for students in several academic disciplines including geography, sociology, politics, religious studies, international development, and anthropology. It will be of great interest to secular and faith-based practitioners working in religion, spirituality, politics, or more widely in public policy, urban planning, and community development.

Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 2002 Christian Citizenship Francis John McConnell, 1922 The New Citizenship Samuel Zane Batten, 2023-07-18 This book explores the concept of Christian citizenship and how it relates to biblical ideas and sources. It provides insights on how Christians can live out their faith in the context of citizenship, emphasizing the importance of character formation. This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. Pablo Arocha,2015-06-04 This book is about the born again experience the new birth and what happened on the cross in favor of mankind and for the body of Christ Our identity our Rights our Privileges and our God given Power in Christ Without this knowledge we would have no victory over the enemy When confronting a low self esteem a low self value a low self worth without knowing our Identity our Position in the body of Christ our Rights our Privileges our Calling and what God says about us we don t stand a chance of making it in the world victoriously What God says about us in Christ is more important than what we feel others say about us and what the enemy speaks to our minds

Who Am I? Pablo Arocha,2015-06-03 This book is about the born again experience the new birth and what happened on the cross in favor of mankind and for the body of Christ Our identity our Rights our Privileges and our God given Power in Christ Without this knowledge we would have no victory over the enemy When confronting a low self esteem a low self value a low self worth without knowing our Identity our Position in the body of Christ our Rights our Privileges our Calling and what God says about us we don t stand a chance of making it in the world victoriously What God says about us in Christ is more important than what we feel others say about us and what the enemy speaks to our minds Undone McGerran Clouser,2021-08-19 We all see ourselves in different ways When you look in the mirror when you think about your life and the things you ve done or maybe the things you hope to do Do you see yourself the way your Father in Heaven sees you I think that deep down most of us at least I know I do look at ourselves and we think something along the lines of I m not good enough whether because of our physical appearance the way we think we treat people or what we ve done we all at some point or another buy in to the lie that we aren t good enough and maybe even that we aren t deserving of love When you take a real deep long hard look at our innermost self is there a part of you that thinks how could GOD love me Well if there is I would love to help answer that deafening question that sits in the deepest parts of our souls Because even if you already know the classic cliché churchy answer that Jesus loves you which is true the depth of what that really looks like may surprise you My hope is that this book helps you to know exactly what the Father thinks when He looks at you and helps you to rediscover your true identity Knowing Who You Are Malcolm J. Gill,2015-06-10 Throughout the history of the church many excellent books have been written addressing the theological significance of Christian identity Such works have delineated important doctrines such as adoption justification and sanctification While these studies of being in Christ have been fruitful and numerous they have often neglected one of the most useful tools in understanding Christian identity namely the use of metaphor A search of Scripture reveals that Jesus and his apostles frequently utilized images from everyday life to illustrate spiritual truths about our identity In this fresh work Knowing Who You Are invites the reader to explore eight lesser known images of Christian identity found in the New Testament Among others the author investigates how being a Christian is like being a boxer in ancient Corinth a citizen in Philippi a farmer in Galilee and a sheep in a flock This engaging assessment of first century images will draw the reader in and leave them challenged encouraged and often surprised as they discover afresh what it means to be Christian

The Identity Key Martina Davis, 2020-11-18 In The Identity Key Martina exposes five life stealing mindsets that keep us from a vibrant relationship with God replacing them with five spiritual truths Encouraged to reflect activate and question in each chapter she draws us to examine our own journey and identity in Christ Her honest testimony is powerfully relevant This book is the second in the series Equipping Unexpected Warriors Our understanding of who God is and therefore our identity in Him directly impacts how we will relate to him Martina speaks forcefully into this important area of warfare proclaiming life changing biblical truths Mark Iles School for Prophecy UK The Identity Key is a hope igniting book Martina brilliantly and effectively compares the destructive effects of five life stealing mindset traps with the strengthening effects of five biblical principles of victory I highly recommend this book Steve Backlund Igniting Hope Ministries
