Gedenken En Verwachten Memoires:

Een aanvechtbare en onzekere situatie Hans van de Wal, 2006 Gedenken en verwachten Johannes Verkuyl, 1983
Memoires van de gereformeerde predikant en hoogleraar geb 1908 A History of Christianity in Indonesia Jan Sihar Aritonang, Karel Adriaan Steenbrink, 2008
Indonesia is the home of the largest single Muslim community of the world Its Christian community about 10% of the population has until now received no overall description in English Through cooperation of 26 Indonesian and European scholars Protestants and Catholics a broad and balanced picture is given of its 24 million Christians This book sketches the growth of Christianity during the Portuguese period 1511 1605 it presents a fair account of developments under the Dutch colonial administration 1605 1942 and is more elaborate for the period of the Indonesian Republic since 1945 It emphasizes the regional differences in this huge country because most Christians live outside the main island of Java Muslim Christian relations as well as the tensions between foreign missionaries and local theology receive special attention The J. H. Bavinck Reader John Bolt, James D. Bratt, Paul J. Visser, 2013-06-03
Crucial themes and issues explored by a premier missiologist Johan Herman Bavinck 1895 1964 was a prominent twentieth century Dutch Calvinist missiologist who wrestled with the tension between religious absolutism and relativism as many Christians do in today's pluralistic context The J H Bavinck Reader gathers together a choice selection of Bavinck's significant writings that are essential for understanding his theology of missions his approach to world religions and his religious psychology His treatment of religious consciousness and Christian faith expands on the brief treatment of it in his own work The Church Between Temple and Mosque The concluding chapters show how Bavinck's theoretical reflection on religious consciousness was rooted in his close observation during his years as a missionary in Indonesia Offering a constructive way forward Bavinck affirms both the particularity of salvation in Christ and the universality of the Christian hope A substantial introduction enhances the book with the most thorough biographical sketch of Bavinck available Heart for the Gospel, Heart for the World Paul J. Visser, 2003-10-28
In this study one finds the missiological inheritance of the first Reformed missiologist Johan Herman Bavinck in an organized and systematic form The following topics are discussed theology of religion biblical theology of missions eschatology mission apologetics and practical subjects such as inculturation ecumenism and the race issue The context in which Bavinck developed his vision is discussed in an explicit way Special attention is given to the influence of Hendrik Kramer on Bavinck's development as well as the psychological dimension in his theologizing The author evaluates the relevancy of Bavinck's missiology for the development of a Reformed missiology The above is made complete by an extensive biographical sketch shedding light on the background and way of life of this Johan Herman Bavinck Minorities, Modernity and the Emerging Nation G. van Klinken, 2021-09-13 This book examines the development of Indonesian nationalism from the viewpoint of a minority the urban Christian elite Placed between the Indonesian nationalist promise of freedom and the equally Christian Dutch colonial promise of modernity their experience of late colonialism was filled with dilemma and ambiguity Rather than describe dry institutions this study traces the lives of five politically active Indonesian Christians both Catholic and Protestant spanning the late colonial Japanese occupation and early independence periods Amir Sjarifoeddin Bishop Soegijapranata Kasimo Moelia and Ratu Langie For most of them the main problem was not so much the protest against colonialism but the transition to more modern forms of political community Their status as a religious minority and as urban middle class migrants out of their traditional communities made them more aware that achieving moral consensus was problematic This book should be of interest to students of Indonesian history as well as those studying the history of Third World nationalism and the history of Christian missions Bibliography of the Indonesian Revolution H.A.J. Klooster, 2024-12-09 Interest in the Indonesian Revolution a period of crucial importance in the history of modern Indonesia continues unabated as reflected in this bibliography The bibliography lists more than 6 000 titles related to the Indonesian Revolution 1945 1949 the West Irian issue 1950 1962 and the South Moluccan question 1950 1951 and its aftermath It is the first bibliography of such depth and scope and purports to offer a complete listing of scholarly works including unpublished theses as well as journalistic accounts pamphlets memoirs and fictional works Most of the works listed are in Indonesian Dutch or English but relevant works in French German Russian Japanese and other languages have also been included An introduction allows a first acquaintance with the mass of publications listed The titles are arranged by period and subdivided by language Indexes of authors of subjects of persons and of geographical names make it possible to access the titles in more detail Missionalia ,2000 Contains abstracts of missiological contributions book reviews and articles Anthropologica ,1985 Includes reports of meetings of the institute 1948 Plus Fifty Years J.
