Travels with a Writing Brush, 2019-11-07 A rich exquisite and original anthology that illuminates Japanese travel writing over a thousand years Oh journey upon journey my life is a brief moment and I cannot hope that we will meet again Roaming over mountains and along perilous shores this anthology illuminates over a thousand years of Japanese travel writing It takes in songs diaries tales and poetry and ranges from famous works including The Pillow Book and the works of Basho to pieces such as the diary of a young girl who longs to return to the capital and her beloved books or the writings of travelling monks who sleep on pillows of grass Together they illuminate a long literary tradition with intense poetic experience at its heart Translated and edited with an introduction by Meredith McKinney

Aftermath Ruth Dudley Edwards, 2013-09-30 On Saturday 15th August 1998 a massive bomb placed by the so called Real IRA ripped through the town of Omagh killing twenty nine people including eleven children and injuring over two hundred It was the worst massacre in Northern Ireland's modern history yet from it came a most extraordinary tale of human resilience as the families of ten of the dead channelled their grief into action Taking for their motto For evil to triumph all that is necessary is for good men to do nothing they decided to pursue the men whom the police believed responsible for the atrocity through the civil courts where the burden of proof is lower This is the remarkable account of how these families who had no knowledge of the law and no money became internationally recognised formidable campaigners and surmounted countless daunting obstacles to win a famous victory Longlisted for the Orwell Prize 2010 Kindle Fire
