she spent almost all her life trying to gain her mother's approval measuring up to her sister's greatness and proving herself worthy of her boyfriend's love and attention. She's been lying to everybody including herself about who she really was. But no matter what she does she just can't seem to live up to their expectations. And then she got fed up and decided to let loose. For just one night. She left her eyeglasses, flat shoes, long skirt, and knitted sweater behind. In high heels and a dress that accented her long legs and curves she went to a club by herself and decided to find out what it was like to have a good time. Her night couldn't even be more perfect when Justin Adams, the city's most sought-after bachelor, aka a most notorious playboy, fell prey to the charms she didn't even know she possessed. Justin was every girl's dream boy, but he never committed to a woman. He didn't date and didn't do relationships. So Adrienne thought after that night she didn't have to deal with him again. He would forget about her and her secret night of fun was safe with him. But what she did not expect was that Justin wasn't about to let her go that easily. And what was supposed to be just a one-night stand with the City's most wanted playboy became a full-blown secret affair. In the eyes of her friends and family she had a boyfriend named Troy. But within the walls of her bedroom she belonged to Justin. However, her new found bliss would be threatened by the secrets that Justin keeps and the past that her parents kept from her. Soon she will find out that she's been living her life with all the right intentions but for all the wrong reasons.

Thrown into the role of nursemaid and mother to her younger sister, nine-year-old Meggin, isn't given much opportunity to be a child. Her mother dispense love only to the endless stream of men she brings home. Follow Meggin's tragic story from her tragic beginnings as she tries desperately to put her past behind her. When I was young I played children's games. My favorite was hopscotch. I never had any chalk but I discovered that I could make faint lines on the concrete with rocks if I press hard enough. Most of the time I played by myself, sometimes my sister Annie would play with me if she wasn't playing with her dolls. There were days I would play that damn game over and over hoping to get good enough for someone to take notice. Maybe one of the neighborhood kids would be watching and admire how good I was. But that never work, no one cared about what I did except my sister Annie. My mother was never home. Annie and I were left to raise ourselves. Actually I raised Annie at the age of nine. I should have been kid but instead I was grown up. I was more of a grown up than my mother if you could call her that.      The Passionate Power of Golf Wendi Keene, 2000-01-06.
