Eighth Army's terrible defeat at Gazala represented Britain's nadir. Slowly but surely however the Allies began to turn the tide. This crucial period was a time of learning for both America and Britain and by the end of the Tunisian campaign they had finally gained material but also certain tactical advantages over Germany particularly in the air war. As this book shows the development of a tactical air force principles that are still used to this day were founded over the skies of North Africa. And yet this is also a book about the men and women who found themselves caught up in this struggle people drawn from all parts of the globe and brought together to make up these polyglot Allied forces British and American Nepalese and Punjabi South African and Australian Maori and Zulu and from all ranks and all services.
