designed to be a platform for research practice discussions and future directions that could further grow sustain and improve the field We hope this book inspires both reflections and conversations on the OST field Endorsements It has been clear for some time that the so called achievement gap is driven in part by gaps in educational opportunities Providing access to high quality out of school learning experiences is one of the most important measures that can be taken to reduce disparities and level the playing field The authors in this important new book show us not only how to create such programs but why it matters to our collective future Timely relevant and readable this book is an invaluable resource for anyone seeking to close gaps in educational opportunities Pedro A Noguera PhD Distinguished Professor of Education UCLA Graduate School of Education Information Studies As the chair of the NAS NRC committee that wrote the report Community programs to support youth development I am delighted by this book When we wrote the report in 2002 there were few systematic attempts to organize and theorize the emerging field of positive youth development As the editors and chapter authors in this book make very clear a great deal has happened at all levels of scholarship in this field over the last 15 years Both this volume and the new book series that it is initiating signal the maturing of this field from childhood through adolescence and now into emerging adulthood The breadth of work discussed in this collection is exceptionally broad ranging from psychological theorizing about the impact of youth serving programs in the out of school time period to social policy analyses of how to grow the profession of OST Youth Professionals and create steady funding streams to support OST programming All topics are critically discussed and new directions are suggested I consider this book to be required reading of all students scholars professional and practitioners in the field of positive youth development and OST programming I go even further by suggesting it be read broadly by anyone interested in the education and development of young people around the world There is no better collection available for educators parents community activists and social policy makers concerned with positive youth development I believe this collection lays a very strong foundation for achieving the goal set forth by Karen Pittman for the field to move from Where and when to what and how Jacquelynne S Eccles Distinguished University Professor of Education University of California Irvine The impressive growth of OST programs represents one of the brightest spots on the American educational landscape Importantly as this book portrays what began a series of programs and local initiatives has now grown into a maturing field with standards scholarship organizations policies and funding at the national state and local levels And more than a field OST carries the urgency energy and passion of a movement for social justice The Growing Out of School Time Field offers a comprehensive review of earlier decades of work and points the way forward for the field s future development It should be read not only by those involved in the OST field but by all educators who seek to create inclusive and powerful learning environments Policymakers as well would benefit from deeper knowledge of this movement It holds a key to preparing today s youth for an uncertain future where the nature of work is changing norms of society are shifting and multicultural global perspectives are needed Milton Chen Ph D Senior Fellow Executive Director Emeritus
