Understanding Modern Andrew Weaving, Lisa Freedman, 2003 Written for those who want to live in a modern way but not necessarily in a modern home this book explains the concepts behind the modern movement. It aims to bring classic buildings to life and by identifying the trademarks of the great Modern designers demonstrates how modern can be achieved in contemporary interiors. What Would I Believe if I Didn't Believe Anything? Kent Ira Groff, 2004-01-02 What Would I Believe if I Didn t Believe Anything is a guidebook for spiritual orphans that shows how they can doubt their way home by embracing their doubts and asking the hard questions as a meaningful path toward genuine faith The author helps readers value their own questions and learn to talk about spiritual matters in fresh non religious language Rather than handing down doctrines from above Groff invites readers to look at life from below exploring experiences of daily living He helps the reader to find the grace in the grit of everyday life seeking analogies of faith in film and literature psychology and science poetry and arts music and sports Drawing primarily from the well of his Christian experience Groff also incorporates insights from the world's primal myths and major religions Fifty reflection exercises make it ideal for group use with journeyers of varied backgrounds for campuses prisons communal residences religious communities and work places.
