Displays A Practical Guide for Librarians The book is also an excellent textbook for LIS courses covering exhibition development and outreach Making Exhibit Labels Beverly Serrell, Think Like a Curator Donna R.

Braden,2025-04-01 Most history museums large and small indoor and outdoor have a staff member with the title of curator or at minimum have tasks that can be classified as curator s work But understanding what is involved in doing this work is more complicated than it seems This book will help you to think like a curator Written by an author who has spent 45 years doing this type of work at one of the largest history museums in the country this book guides the reader through curatorial methodology in today s world with topics that include reading objects shaping collections engaging in rigorous research the curatorial role in exhibitions and historic site interpretation the basics of curatorial writing and curators as leaders It gives special focus to applying DEAI lenses as well as aligning with institutional mission and goals incorporating audience perspectives and using conceptual and systems thinking Both succinct and substantial this book includes easy explanations step by step process guides practical tips real life examples activities and source lists Creating Exhibits That Engage John Summers,2018-03-02 Winner of the 2018 Ontario Museum Association Award of Excellence Winner of the 2019 Canadian Museum Association Award of Outstanding Achievement in the Research Cultural Heritage Category Creating Exhibits that Engage A Manual for Museums and Historical Organizations is a concise useful guide to developing effective and memorable museum exhibits The book is full of information guidelines tips and concrete examples drawn from the author s years of experience as a curator and exhibit developer in the United States and Canada Is this your first exhibit project You will find step by step instructions useful advice and plenty of examples Are you a small museum or local historical society looking to improve your exhibits This book will take you through how to define your audience develop a big idea write the text manage the budget design the graphics arrange the gallery select artifacts and fabricate install and evaluate the exhibit Are you a museum studies student wanting to learn about the theory and practice of exhibit development This book combines both and includes references to works by noted authors in the field Written in a clear and accessible style Creating Exhibits that Engage offers checklists of key points at the end of each chapter a glossary of specialized terms and photographs drawings and charts illustrating key concepts and techniques Using Questions as Titles on Museum Exhibit Labels to Direct Visitor Attention and Increase Learning Jane Marie Litwak,1996 Great Exhibits! Beth Hansen,2017-05-01 Building informative and interesting exhibits is challenging for small museums Even museums with minimal budgets can produce quality exhibits with guidance from Great Exhibits An Exhibit Planning and Construction Handbook for Small Museums Using research from top exhibit professionals and do it yourself installation instructions small museum staff and volunteers will be able to build professional exhibits Museum professionals have dedicated years of study to the experiences of museum visitors Great Exhibits combines the best academic research that will help small museums understand what needs to go into planning an exhibit with step by step instructions that outline the process for planning successful exhibits Digital interactive technology and simple hands on experiences are included To keep up with changing technology the companion website <https://bethsagehansen.wordpress.com> will be updated regularly to provide resources and current digital technology The best thing about Great Exhibits is that features more than 100 FULL COLOR photographs and illustrations to show you how to create exhibit cases object mounts and temporary walls This practical guide is invaluable for any museum without professional fabricators Based on practical experiences at small museums across the country and featuring more than 100 full color photographs and illustrations Great Exhibits is an invaluable resource for theoretical guidance and practical assistance to anyone who works or volunteers in a small museum as well as a textbook for museum studies programs Museums in Motion Edward P. Alexander, Mary Alexander, Juilee Decker, 2017-02-23 Here is a complete introduction to the history of museums types of museums and the key roles that museums play in the twenty first century Following an introductory chapter looking at what a museum is today Part I looks at the history and types of museums art and design museums natural history and anthropology museums science museums history museums historic houses interpretation centers and heritage sites botanical gardens and zoos children s museums The second part of the book explores the primary functions of museums and museum professionals to collect to conserve to exhibit to interpret and to engage to serve and to act The final chapter looks at the museum profession and professional practices Throughout emphasis is on museums in the United States although attention is paid to the historical framing of museums within the European context The new edition includes discussions of technology access and inclusivity woven into each chapter a list of challenges and opportunities in each chapter and Museums in Motion Today vignettes spread throughout the volume in which museum professionals provide their perspectives on where museums are now and where they are going More than 140 images illustrate the volume

Museums in Motion Juilee Decker, 2024-08-06 This book explores the histories and functions of museums while also looking at the current standing of museums and their ongoing efforts toward relevance resiliency and future proofing Section I examines the beginnings of museums with chapters dedicated to art and design museums natural history and anthropological museums science museums museums focused history and the past and gardens zoos and children s museums Emphasis is on museums in the United States with some historical framing beyond the U S Section II explores the primary functions of museums including conservation exhibition interpretation engagement and service Section III examines museums from within by exploring critical issues and contemporary movements facing museums and our society transparency and openness labor and equity belonging and coalition building risk taking and risk aversion and sustainability and empathy Advocating for change rather than death to museums Museums in Motion demonstrates the very premise that museums have been in motion all along as they have shifted from their rather simple form of a treasury storehouse and tomb to something much more complex by deeply considering where museums have come from where they are today and where they are going Entirely new to this edition Section III Museum Aspirations features five new chapters each centered around topics rather than a museum type or museum function Each topic is meant to be a micro narrative and springboard for a conversation about museums today and their sustainability in the future The chapters examine museums from the inside museum workers and their voices especially as well as power held by people and institutions and DEIA without using those individual words as chapter headings On their own or in conjunction with the chapters in the previous sections of this book these chapters serve as vignettes that can help readers to understand where how and why we need to apply critical lenses to institutions and articulate how doing so helps us to understand this historical moment and ultimately how we can realize resiliency and sustainability for museums and those who make their existence possible Journal of Interpretation Research ,2001 Designing Interpretive Signs Gianna Moscardo,Roy Ballantyne,Karen Hughes,2007 A guide to creating helpful user friendly signs for visitors The Smart Museum of Art Bulletin ,2001 Handbook of Environmental Psychology Robert B. Bechtel,Arzah Ts'erts'man,2002 Comprehensive handbook providing an overview of the theories research and applications critical to Environmental Psychology It aims to define the ongoing revolution in thinking about how the environment and psychology interact The Interpreters Training Manual for Museums Mary Kay Cunningham,2004 The Interpreters Training Manual for Museums helps institutions develop a customized training program for their interpreters Focusing on social interaction this book combines group exercises written and oral activities and interactive lectures to teach interpreters how to facilitate meaningful conversations with visitors History News ,1999 Tell a Story with Blue Ribon Exhibit ,2001 Legacy ,2001
