Hidden Treasures Harriet Baskas, 2013-10-01 While there are more than 15 000 museums in our country visitors get to see only about five percent of any institution's collections. Most museums simply don't have room to display everything they've got. However, there are a wide variety of surprising and intriguing reasons that for example the Smithsonian Institution doesn't display its collection of condoms. Florida's Lightner Museum locks up all but one of its shrunken heads and a world class stash of Japanese erotica. Shunga art was kept in the Honolulu Museum of Art's storage until only recently. Each item or collection included in this volume is described and placed in context with stories and interviews that explore the historical, social, cultural, political, environmental, or other circumstances that led to keeping that object or group of objects out of public view. The ultimate museum buff's voyeuristic experience.
