Essence and Existence James Alabi, 2018-08-20 Essay from the year 2009 in the subject Philosophy Miscellaneous language English abstract The terms essence and existence have dominated philosophical discussions for centuries at least from the era of Plato up to the contemporary times The central issue at the heart of this discourse in the preliminary stage had to do with the question of what actually makes an essence of an existing entity For example if you say God philosophers will probe further to ask what is the essence of God In other words what are those characteristics that are truly exclusive to God If again you say a Satsuma a type of orange exists then one will be prompted to ask as to what features distinguish it from a tangerine That is what are those distinctive qualities essentially immaterial that will not make me call an existential Satsuma a tangerine What the inquirer is demanding is simply something more than mere the Satsuma or any of the accidental features like colour taste etc Questions have also been raised in terms of what actually exists as against what is believed to exist The discourse quickly like wild fire moved from the level of mere conceptualizing the terms to the level of philosophers trying to find out which of essence and existence precedes each other In other words granted at least at level of assumption that both human and objects exist philosophers are asking whether their essence precedes their existence The battle to resolve this crisis of concepts pitted modern Christian philosophers like Bishop George Berkeley and Immanuel Kant against contemporary existentialists like Jean Paul Sartre and Martin Heidegger The former school led by Berkeley in its submission had argued that essence precedes existence while the latter championed by extensively by Sartre disagrees saying existence precedes essence However there are other variations to the discourse but it is sufficient for the scope of this paper to limit discussion to these two with more emphasis on Sartre Existentialism: A Guide for the Perplexed Steven

Earnshaw, 2006-11-07 Existentialism is often studied by students with little or no background in philosophy either as an introduction to the idea of studying philosophy or as part of a literary course Although it is often an attractive topic for students interested in thinking about questions of self or being it also requires them to study difficult thinkers and texts This Guide for the Perplexed begins with the question of What is Existentialism and then moves on to provide a brief analysis of the key thinkers writers and texts both philosophical and literary central to existentialism Chapters focus particularly on Kierkegaard Heidegger Sartre and Camus but also discuss other philosophers and writers such as Nietzsche Dostoevsky and Kafka The second section of the Guide introduces key topics associated with existentialist thought Self Consciousness the question of God and Commitment Each chapter explains the concepts and debates and provides guidance on reading and analysing the philosophical and literary texts addressed focusing throughout on clarifying the areas students find most difficult Existentialism & Humanism Jean-Paul Sartre, 1975 Existentialism and Humanism Karl 1883-1969 Jaspers, 2021-09-09 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on
