Exit Betty Grace Livingston Hill:

Exit Betty Grace Livingston Hill,1920 Betty a beautiful bride walks down the aisle with head bowed in sadness and despair Just as the minister starts the wedding ceremony Betty looks at her bridegroom and faints She is taken to an anteroom where she is revived As they prepare to continue the ceremony Betty flees out the back door the beginning of an exciting adventure

Exit Betty Grace Livingston Hill,2014-12-07 Betty alone in the midst of her bridal finery shrank back from the gaze of the curious onlookers seeming very small like a thing of the air caught in a mesh of the earth She had longed all day for this brief respite from everyone but it had passed before she could concentrate her thoughts She started forward a flame of rose for an instant in her white cheeks but gone as quickly Her eyes reminded one of the stars among the far away clouds on a night of fitful storm with only glimpses of their beauty in breaks of the overcast sky Her small hands gripped one another excitedly and the sweet lips were quivering

Exit Betty, the Original Romance (Large Print) Grace Livingston Hill,2014-12-07 The crowd gave way and the car glided smoothly up to the curb at the canopied entrance to the church The blackness of the wet November night was upon the street It had rained at intervals all day The pavements shone wetly like new paint in the glimmer of the street lights and rude shadows gloomed in every cranny of the great stone building Betty alone in the midst of her bridal finery shrank back from the gaze of the curious onlookers seeming very small like a thing of the air caught in a mesh of the earth She had longed all day for this brief respite from everyone but it had passed before she could concentrate her thoughts She started forward a flame of rose for an instant in her white cheeks but gone as quickly Her eyes reminded one of the stars among the far away clouds on a night of fitful storm with only glimpses of their beauty in breaks of the overcast sky Her small hands gripped one another excitedly and the sweet lips were quivering

Exit Betty Grace Livingston Hill,2017-09-09 The girl came to a standstill abruptly and faced about drawing away just a hair's breadth from the detaining hand and surveying her steadily the boyish expression in her eyes changing to an amused calculation such as one would fancy a cowboy held up on his native plains by a stray lamb might have worn What's the little old idea Asked the girl coldly her eyes narrowing as she studied the other girl in detail and attempted to classify her into the known and unknown quantities of her world Her face was absolutely expressionless as far as any sign of interest or sympathy was concerned It was like a house with the door still closed and a well trained butler in attendance I've got to get away from here at once before anybody sees me whispered Betty excitedly with a fearful glance behind her Do you want me to call a cab for you Sneered the girl on the sidewalk with an envious glance at the white satin slippers

Exit Betty Grace Livingston Hill,2015-06-01 The crowd gave way and the car glided smoothly up to the curb at the canopied entrance to the church The blackness of the wet November night was upon the street It had rained at intervals all day The pavements shone wetly like new paint in the glimmer of the street lights and rude shadows gloomed in every cranny of the great stone building Betty alone in the midst of her bridal finery shrank back from the gaze of the curious onlookers seeming very small like a thing of handsome colonial residence of Hamilton Van Rensselaer Solemn hedges shut in the family pride and hid the family sorrow and about the borders of its spacious gardens where even the roses seemed subdued there played a child The stately house oppressed her and she loved the sombre garden best Her only friend in the old house seemed a tall clock that stood on the stairs and told out the hours in the hopeless tone that was expected of a clock in such a house though it often took time to wink pleasantly at the child as she passed by and talk off a few seconds and minutes in a brighter tone But the great clock on the staircase ticked awesomely one morning as the little girl went slowly down to her father s study in response to his bidding She did not want to go She delayed her steps as much as possible and looked up at the kindly old clock for sympathy but even the round eyed sun and the friendly moon that went around on the clock face every day as regularly as the real sun and moon and usually appeared to be bowing and smiling at her wore solemn expressions and seemed almost pale behind their highly painted countenances The little girl shuddered as she gave one last look over her shoulder at them and passed into the dim recesses of the back hall where the light came only in weird half circular slants from the mullioned window over the front door It was dreadful indeed when the jolly sun and moon looked grave She paused before the heavy door of the study and held her breath dreading the ordeal that was to come Then gathering courage she knocked timidly and heard her father s instant cold Come With trembling fingers she turned the knob and went in There were heavy damask curtains at the windows reaching to the floor caught back with thick silk cords and tassels They were a deep sullen red and filled the room with oppressive shadows in no wise relieved by the heavy mahogany furniture upholstered in the same red damask Exit
