School attendance is a baseline factor in determining student success. (Great Schools Staff, 2016) The attendance is important because students are more likely to succeed in academics when they attend school consistently. It's difficult for the teacher and the class to build their expertise and growth if a large number of students are often absent. In addition to falling behind in academics, students who are not in school on a regular basis are more likely to get into difficulty with the law and cause problems in their communities.
