The Future of Policing Scott A. Cunningham, 2022-03-19 Policing does not happen in a vacuum The mood viewpoints and stresses of society impact how policing occurs and how it is perceived Starting in June and July 2020 the nation saw weeks of protests civil disturbances and riots that were specifically directed against the police This most recent round of public unrest was sparked by the senseless needless and improper death of George Floyd Having seen similar deaths of black males while involved with police officers the nation had had enough and demands for something to be done were far reaching and involved more than just the black community or a few protestors An all encompassing variety of people either joined the protests or supported them People of all demographic backgrounds economic levels and professions resoundingly condemned the actions of the officers in the Floyd incident even police officers and police leaders Policing in America needs to change Scott Cunningham offers advice on a wide variety of policing aspects including but not limited to leadership training equipment and weapons government's roles and responsibilities citizen and community participation investigation procedure police culture and attitudes the list goes on Looking at policing from multiple angles he provides implementable recommendations for up and down the chain of command that individually and collectively could enhance policing and improve the quality of life for everyone Mundo gráfico F.
