A Companion to the Works of J. M. Coetzee Timothy J. Mehigan, Tim Mehigan, 2014-02 New essays providing critical views of Coetzee's major works for the scholar and the general reader J M Coetzee is perhaps the most critically acclaimed bestselling author of imaginative fiction writing in English today He received the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2003 and is the first writer to have been awarded two Booker Prizes The present volume makes critical views of this important writer accessible to the general reader as well as the scholar discussing Coetzee's main works in chronological order and introducing the dominant themes in the academic discussion of his oeuvre The volume highlights Coetzee's exceptionally nuanced approach to writing as both an exacting craft and a challenging moral ethical undertaking It discusses Coetzee's complex relation to apartheid and post apartheid South Africa the land of his birth and evaluates his complicated responses to the literary canon Coetzee emerges as both a modernist and a highly self-aware postmodernist a champion of the truths of aliterary enterprise conducted unrelentingly in the mode of self confession Contributors Chris Ackerley Derek Attridge Carol Clarkson Simone Drichel Johan Geertsema David James Michelle Kelly Sue Kossew Mike Marais James Meffan Tim Mehigan Chris Prentice Engelhard Weigl Kim L Worthington Tim Mehigan is Professor of Languages in the Department of Languages and Cultures at the University of Otago New Zealand and Honorary Professor in the Department of Languages and Comparative Cultural Studies at the University of Queensland Australia J.M. Coetzee: Fictions of the Real Anthony

Uhlmann,2019-05-16 J M Coetzee has new things to say about this relation between the real and fictions of the real and while much has already been written about him these questions need to be more fully explored The contributions to this volume are drawn together by the idea of the hinge between the world whether understood in ontological bio ethical personal and interpersonal or socio political terms and fictional representations of it whether understood in epistemological ficto biographical formal or stylistic terms In this collection the question of understanding itself how we understand or imagine our place in the world is shown to be central to our conception of that world That is rather than beginning with forms developed in socio political understandings Coetzee s works ask us to consider what role fiction might play in relation to politics in relation to history in relation to ethics and our understanding of human agency and responsibility Coetzee has a profound interest in the methods through which we make sense of the contemporary world and our place in it and his approach appeals to readers of fiction critics and philosophers alike The central problems he deals with in his fiction are of the kind that confront people everywhere and so involve a translatability that allow the works to maintain relevance across cultures Added to this though his fiction makes us question the nature of understanding itself This book was originally published as a special issue of Textual Practice

Heterosexual Masculinities and the Self-Reflexive Novel Stefano Rossoni,2025-07-24 Heterosexual Masculinities and the Self Reflexive Novel examines how the narratives of four world renowned authors namely J M Coetzee Milan Kundera Philip Roth and Mario Vargas Llosa offer a standpoint through which to address the inscription of heterosexual masculinity into Western literary legacy and the ways in which masculinity is re fashioned in contemporary self reflexive novels Considering the interconnectedness of their narratives for the first time the book explores unexamined patterns of dialogue among Coetzee Kundera Roth and Vargas Llosa while also contextualising their writing in the light of the European literary tradition inaugurated by Cervantes s Don Quixote and continued by Flaubert s Madame Bovary Rather than building on conventional theoretical approaches to literary studies Stefano Rossoni develops a fresh and engaging approach by looking at these two works not only as narrative texts but most importantly as theories of literature In dialogue with critical contributions that examined men s emotional illiteracy and struggle to develop a language for self reflection the book argues that the narratives of Coetzee Kundera Roth and Vargas Llosa engage with the tradition of the self reflexive novel and its ramifications to reflect on masculinity as a socio cultural construction Ultimately their writing reveals men s novelistic self reflexivity as a site of unintelligibility

The Global Wordsworth Katherine Bergren,2019-05-24 The Global Wordsworth examines Anglophone writers who repurposed William Wordsworth s poetry By reading Wordsworth in dialog with J M Coetzee Lydia Maria Child and Jamaica Kincaid Katherine Bergren revitalizes our understanding of Wordsworth s career and its place in the canon

New Ideas in the Writing Arts Graeme Harper,2013-08-19 New Ideas in the Writing Arts has come about because recent changes taking place in educational settings have influenced the ways in which learners and teachers are exploring Creative Writing The worldwide growth of

Creative Writing as a formal subject of study in universities and colleges has generated explorations that appear now to be at the tip of an even greater range of explorations that promise to be undertaken in coming years. When titling this book the intention was to say that we should consider what might currently be new, what might be explored, what might be introduced to a writer who has not thought of investigating certain aspects of Creative Writing or undertaking Creative Writing in a certain way. Such freshness can often produce a development in a writer's own work. Our 21st-century development of research in Creative Writing undertaken by creative writers through writing practice and through a critical engagement with Creative Writing that begins in writing practice is already unearthing new ways of thinking about Creative Writing and new ways of undertaking it too. New Ideas in the Writing Arts presents explorations of Creative Writing fresh from explorers of Creative Writing who have incorporated into their work ideas discovered in creative practice and ideas explored critically because of creative practice. Readers will discover in the tone and trajectory of the chapters a serious engagement with how to determine current knowledge, how to confirm or challenge that knowledge, and broadly how to progress our knowledge of Creative Writing. Practical considerations prevail, and there is a clear sense in which Creative Writing is an activity, not a static thing to be examined in a fixed state and discussed as a completed object. Rather, Creative Writing in this book is a range of events and their results, a human activity that draws on many individual actions, cultural and historical contexts, and in its undertaking presents evidence that reflects on the knowledge and belief that informs and produces it. Coetzee's Austerities Professor Graham Bradshaw, Professor Michael Neill, 2013-04-28. Representing a wide range of critical and theoretical perspectives, this volume examines J. M. Coetzee's novels from Dusklands to Diary of a Bad Year. The choice of essays reflects three broad goals: aligning the South African dimension of Coetzee's writing with his late modernist aesthetic; exploring the relationship between Coetzee's novels and his essays on linguistics; and paying particular attention to his more recent fictional experiments. These objectives are realized in essays focusing on, among other matters, the function of names and etymology in Coetzee's fiction; the vexed relationship between art and politics in apartheid South Africa; the importance of film in Coetzee's literary sensibility; Coetzee's reworkings of Defoe; the paradoxes inherent in confessional narratives; ethics and the controversial politics of reading Disgrace; intertextuality and the fictional self-consciousness of Slow Man. Through its pronounced emphasis on the novelist's later work, the collection points towards a narratological and linguistic reassessment of the Coetzee canon. Disgrace J. M. As a South African now Australian novelist, composing his best known works in the latter third of the twentieth century, Coetzee has understandably often been read through the lenses of postcolonial theory and post war ethics Yet his reception is entering a new phase bolstered by thousands of pages of new and unpublished empirical evidence housed at the J M Coetzee archive at The Harry Ransom Center University of Texas Austin This material provokes a re reading of Coetzee s project even as it uncovers keys to his process of formal experimentation and compositional evolution up to and including Disgrace 1999 Following Coetzee s false starts his confrontation of narrative impasses and his shifting deployment of source materials J M Coetzee and the Limits of the Novel provides a new series of detailed snapshots of one of the world s most celebrated authors
