General Sherman (Classic Reprint) General Manning F. Force, 2015-07-08 Excerpt from General Sherman General Sherman was the most picturesque figure in the civil war His character was absolutely pure and spotless He had a vigorous and penetrating intellect prompt and clear in comprehension and in decision While steadfast in his opinions he was subordinate in conduct he held to his judgment in issue against President Lincoln but yielded as unquestioning obedience to Mc Clelland as to Grant He was an omnivorous reader and was a storehouse of felicitous anecdote His cheerful disposition and inexhaustible fund of conversation made him always a delightful companion Frank as a child and outspoken in his likes and dislikes Sherman was often engaged in controversy The war filled only a few years of his life but comprised most of his activity and achievements Accordingly his biography naturally groups itself into these parts before during and after the war and so it is written in the following pages The effort in this narrative has been to give in the simplest form a statement of the facts without comment The completion of the publication of the First Series of the War Records gives opportunity for a fair approximation to a correct statement About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works National Union Catalog, 1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases The American Catalogue, 1901 American national trade bibliography General Sherman Manning Ferguson Force, 1899 Guide to Reprints Albert James Diaz, 1983 Vicksburg Donald L.
