Publications of the American Jewish Historical Society, 1907 The Difficult Flowering of Surinam Edward Dew, 1978-07 In the months immediately preceding Surinam's independence November 25 1975 warning signals went up on both sides of the Atlantic This small ethnically plural society was torn by severe political conflict Elections in November 1973 had brought an end to political collaboration between Creoles and Hindustanis the country's two largest ethnic groups and the Creoles now in control of the government were resolutely pushing over Hindustani opposition to sever their colonial ties with the Netherlands But defections from the Creole benches during the summer of 1975 had produced a virtual stalemate in the legislature heightening fears that the government would act unilaterally The failure of Creole and Hindustani leaders to resolve their differences led many observers in both the Netherlands and Surinam to predict a collapse of democracy and or violent conflict once independence was proclaimed Ironically the dramatic last minute resolution of the struggle precipitated not only general jubilation and relief but also self congratulation as the leaders of Surinam's multiethnic society long priding themselves on achievements in harmonious understanding pulled out all stops in their independence day oratory No one could forget the nightmare of the preceding few years But neither could anyone familiar with Surinam's historical development flatly reject the rhetoric as being without some foundation In fact Surinam while severely tested by the most complex multi ethnic population in the Caribbean does have a record of which she can be proud and which deserves to be more widely known The South American, 1918 Doing Business in Surinam Stichting tot Bevordering van Investeren in Suriname, 1969* Suriname and the Netherlands Antilles Enid Brown, 1992-09 Provides a single source for the identification of over 1 000 published and unpublished works written in English on Suriname and the Netherlands Antilles The volume will be very useful in introducing country specific materials to new readers and is user friendly THE AMERICAS The World's Markets, 1919 Country Commercial Guide, Suriname, Suriname, 1998 The Northeastern Reporter, 1892 Includes the decisions of the Supreme Courts of Massachusetts Ohio Indiana and Illinois and Court of Appeals
