Emphasising that what works in one situation may not in another, and a wider pedagogical knowledge is essential to ensure quality outcomes for children, it considers key topics such as the role of the pedagogue and developing your own style, promoting a lifelong love of learning in children under your care, sensitivity and inclusion for all children's cultures and communities, promoting the rights of every child under your care. Incorporating reflection points and research tasks to support independent learning, this is essential reading for students on Early Childhood Studies courses and Early Years Foundation Degrees, as well as early years practitioners.
