Faceted Search Daniel Tunkelang, 2022-05-31 We live in an information age that requires us more than ever to represent access and use information Over the last several decades we have developed a modern science and technology for information retrieval relentlessly pursuing the vision of a memex that Vannevar Bush proposed in his seminal article As We May Think Faceted search plays a key role in this program Faceted search addresses weaknesses of conventional search approaches and has emerged as a foundation for interactive information retrieval User studies demonstrate that faceted search provides more effective information seeking support to users than best first search Indeed faceted search has become increasingly prevalent in online information access systems particularly for e commerce and site search In this lecture we explore the history theory and practice of faceted search Although we cannot hope to be exhaustive our aim is to provide sufficient depth and breadth to offer a useful resource to both researchers and practitioners Because faceted search is an area of interest to computer scientists information scientists interface designers and usability researchers we do not assume that the reader is a specialist in any of these fields Rather we offer a self contained treatment of the topic with an extensive bibliography for those who would like to pursue particular aspects in more depth Table of Contents I Key Concepts Introduction What Are Facets Information Retrieval Faceted Information Retrieval II Research and Practice Academic Research Commercial Applications III Practical Concerns Back End Concerns Front End Concerns Conclusion Glossary

ECLAP 2012 Conference on Information Technologies for Performing Arts, Media Access and Entertainment

Paolo Nesi, 2012 It has been a long history of Information Technology innovations within the Cultural Heritage areas The Performing arts has also been enforced with a number of new innovations which unveil a range of synergies and possibilities Most of the technologies and innovations produced for digital libraries media entertainment and education can be exploited in the field of performing arts with adaptation and repurposing Performing arts offer many interesting challenges and opportunities for research and innovations and exploitation of cutting edge research results from interdisciplinary areas For these reasons the ECLAP 2012 can be regarded as a continuation of past conferences such as AXMEDIS and WEDELMUSIC both pressed by IEEE and FUP ECLAP is an European Commission project to create a social network and media access service for performing arts institutions in Europe to create the e library of performing arts exploiting innovative solutions coming from the ICT

Information Access in the Era of Generative AI Ryen W. White, Chirag Shah, 2024-12-24

Generative Artificial Intelligence GenAI has emerged as a groundbreaking technology that promises to revolutionize many industries as well as people's personal and professional lives This book discusses GenAI and its role in information access often referred to as Generative Information Retrieval GenIR or more broadly information interaction The role of GenAI in information access is complex and dynamic with many dimensions To address this following a brief introduction to GenAI and GenIR the remainder of the book provides eight chapters each targeting a different dimension or sub topic These cover foundations of GenIR interactions with GenIR systems adapting them to users tasks and scenarios improving them based on user feedback GenIR evaluation the sociotechnical implications of GenAI for information access recommendations within GenIR and the future of information access with GenIR The book is targeted at graduate students and researchers interested in issues of information retrieval access and interactions as well as applications of GenAI in various informational contexts While some of the parts assume prior background in IR or AI most others do not making this book suitable for adoption in various classes as a primary source or as a supplementary material
