charts statistics and graphs The Almanac is unique for its U S information where women s history is profiled state by state Acclaimed women s studies author Doris Weatherford editor in chief and major contributor to the book presents cutting edge information about women in the United States and throughout the world      Urban Anthropology and Studies of Cultural Systems and World Economic Development ,2001      Laboring to Learn Lorna Rivera,2008-08-28 The American adult education system has become an alternative for school dropouts with some state welfare policies requiring teen mothers and women without high school diplomas to participate in adult education programs to receive aid Very little has been published about women s experiences in these mandatory programs and whether the programs reproduce the conditions that forced women to drop out in the first place Lorna Rivera bridges the gap with this important study the product of ten years active ethnographic research with formerly homeless women who participated in adult literacy education classes before and after welfare reform Analyzing the web of ideological contradictions regarding work first welfare reform policies Rivera argues that poverty is produced and reproduced when women with low literacy skills are pushed into welfare to work programs and denied education      Too Much to Ask Elizabeth Higginbotham,2001 Higginbotham explores the experiences of the first generation of black women to integrate northern U S colleges and universities examining how social class family upbringing
