Critical Approaches to Teaching the High School Novel Crag Hill, Victor Malo-Juvera, 2018-10-25 This edited collection will turn a critical spotlight on the set of texts that has constituted the high school canon of literature for decades By employing a set of fresh vibrant critical lenses such as youth studies and disabilities studies that are often unfamiliar to advanced students and scholars of secondary English this book provides divergent approaches to traditional readings and pedagogical practices surrounding these familiar works By introducing and applying these interpretive frames to the field of secondary English education this book demonstrates that there is more to say about these texts ways to productively problematize them and to reconfigure how they may be read and used in the classroom

Introduction to Play Analysis Cal Pritner, Scott E. Walters, 2017-05-04 In this indispensable companion to any theatre class in which scripts are read and interpreted Pritner and Walters offer five sequential levels of reading designed to lead to a deep understanding of the text Level one imagines the play as performed in front of an audience level two examines the deep structure of the conflict level three examines given circumstances and the type of relationship the play creates between the audience and the production level four looks closely at characters behavior and reactions to their given circumstances surveys conflict in each scene and encourages supplemental research about the play finally level five synthesizes the information acquired from the preceding levels Each chapter introduces a concept that is then explored by studying its application to The Glass Menagerie chosen for both its accessibility and its complexity Other plays discussed include works by Moli re Shakespeare Sophocles and August Wilson End of chapter questions are applicable to any play
