Base your answer to the following question on the passage below and on your knowledge of social studies.

. . . The factory owners did not have the power to compel anybody to take a factory job. They could only hire people who were ready to work for the wages offered to them. Low as these wage rates were, they were nonetheless much more than these paupers could earn in any other field open to them. It is a distortion of facts to say that the factories carried off the housewives from the nurseries and the kitchens and the children from their play. These women had nothing to cook with and [nothing] to feed their children. These children were destitute [poor] and starving. Their only refuge was the factory. It saved them, in the strict sense of the term, from death by starvation. . . . — Ludwig von Mises, Human Action, A Treatise on Economics, Yale University Press

Which statement summarizes the theme of this passage?

- (1) Factory owners created increased hardships.
- (2) Factory owners preferred to use child laborers.
- (3) The factory system allowed people to earn money.
- (4) The factory system created new social classes.
