The Handbook of Comparative Communication Research Frank Esser, Thomas Hanitzsch, 2013-06-19 The Handbook of Comparative Communication Research aims to provide a comprehensive understanding of comparative communication research It fills an obvious gap in the literature and offers an extensive and interdisciplinary discussion of the general approach of comparative research its prospect and problems as well as its applications in crucial sub fields of communications The first part of the volume charts the state of the art in the field the second section introduces relevant areas of communication studies where the comparative approach has been successfully applied in recent years the third part offers an analytical review of conceptual and methodological issues and the last section proposes a roadmap for future research Foundations of Global Communication Kai Hafez, Anne Grüne, 2022-05-30 This book provides a wide ranging theoretical and empirical overview of the disparate achievements and shortcomings of global communication This exceptionally ambitious and systematic project takes a critical perspective on the globalization of communication Uniquely it sets media globalization alongside a plethora of other globalized forms of communication ranging from the individual to groups civil society groupings commercial enterprises and political formations The result is a sophisticated and impressive overview of globalized communication across various facets assessing the phenomena for the extent to which they live up to the much hyped claims of globalization s potential to create a globally interdependent society The setbacks of globalization such as right wing populism and religious fundamentalism can only be understood if the shortcomings of global communication are taken more seriously Covering all types of cross border global communication in media political and economic systems civil societies social media and lifeworlds of the individual this unique book is invaluable for students and researchers in media communication globalization and related areas Internationalizing "International Communication" Chin-Chuan Lee, 2015-01-13 A critical intervention in international communications in which an array of eminent scholars challenge the Western dominated conceptions of the field International Journalism Kevin Williams, 2011-08-10 Kevin Williams has authored an account of foreign correspondence and international journalism that is the most comprehensively sourced inclusive contextualized timely and critical in its field At last we have an account that acknowledges that the largest employers of foreign correspondents for nearly two hundred years have been and continue to be the news agencies that the occupation is rooted in a history of imperialism post colonialism and commercialization whose vestiges today are all too apparent that the impacts of so called new media on the amount range and quality of international news while significant are less dramatic and less positive than commonly supposed Oliver Boyd Barrett Bowling Green State University Ohio What is the future of the foreign correspondent is there one Tracing the historical development of international reporting Kevin Williams examines the organizational structures occupational culture and information environment in which it is practiced to explore the argument that foreign correspondence is becoming extinct in the globalized world Mapping the institutional political economic cultural and historical context within which news is gathered across borders this book reveals how foreign correspondents are adapting to new global and commercial realities in how they gather adapt and disseminate news Lucid and engaging the book expertly probes three global models of reporting Anglo American European and the developing world to lay bare the forces of technology commercial constraint and globalization that are changing how journalism is practiced and understood Essential reading for students of journalism this is a timely and thought provoking book for anyone who wishes to fully grasp the core issues of journalism and reporting in a global context Global Communication Yahya R. Kamalipour, 2007 Intended for upper level undergraduate or lower level graduate students with prior experience in studying mass communications this textbook put together by Kamalipour Purdue U Calumet presents emerging and conventional topics in international communication including international public relations and advertising trends in media consolidation International Journal of Communication , 2007-12

Communications Media, Globalization, and Empire Oliver Boyd-Barrett, 2006 In Communications Media Globalization and Empire an international team of experts analyze and critique the political economy of media communications worldwide Their analysis takes particular account of the sometimes conflicting pressures of globalization and neo imperialism The first is commonly defined as the dismantling of barriers to trade and cultural exchange and responds significantly to lobbying of the world s largest corporations including media corporations The second concerns U S pursuit of national security interests as response to terrorism at one level and at others to intensifying competition among both nations and corporations for global natural resources Global Journalism Research Martin Löffelholz, David Weaver, 2008-02-11 This edited work brings together an elite team of contributors to create a comprehensive overview of journalism research and its different approaches methods and paradigms around the world Perspectives on Culture, Technology and Communication Casey Man Kong Lum, 2006 This book is an introduction to media ecology as a theory group that encompasses a coherent body of canonical literature and perspectives on understanding culture technology and communication It examines the various facets of media ecology s development since the turn of the 20th century as an intellectual tradition and how it has evolved into being through an interlocking network of researchers from multidisciplinary backgrounds such as behavioral sciences classics cultural and structural anthropology information and systems theory history of technology media and culture and so on Specifically the volume clearly explains some of media ecology s defining ideas theories or themes about the interrelationship among culture technology and communication the thinkers behind these ideas the social political and intellectual contexts in which these ideas came into being as well as how the reader may use these ideas in our times University of Nigeria Journal of Political Economy , 2009 How the World's News Media Reacted to 9/11 Tomasz Phudowski, 2007 How Did the World s News Media React to 9 11 Not surprisingly most of the world s news media criticized the terrorists and offered sympathy and support to the United States in the days right after the September 11 2001 attacks But this phase didn t last long With a week or two many of the world s news media even some in Western countries were putting some of the blame for the attacks on the United States citing its history of heavy handed politics around the world Many hoped the attacks would wake up the United States to this fact But the subsequent U S led wars in Afghanistan and Iraq dashed these hopes Today much of the sympathy and support generated from the tragedy has dissipated a replaced instead by a widespread belief that political leadership in the United States is more arrogant intransigent and self absorbed than ever This is the major theme of How the World s News Media Reacted to 9 11 which contains 22 chapters written by scholars and experts from around the world that examine news media coverage of 9 11 from more than two dozen countries The arrogance theme isn't one that many U S politicians journalists and citizens want to hear But it's the message that the world's news media have been sending and the question now is Will U S media and politicians listen Other key highlights in this book American TV news channel news executives deliberately excluded controversial U S guests and opinions from their news coverage of 9 11 Chapter 20 Media in Australia Canada and other countries demonized Muslims and Arabs after 9 11 Chapters 18 and 21 Ordinary Arabs and Muslims in the Middle East have distorted views of the United States partly because their media do not provide all of the facts Chapter 15 but Americans too misunderstand Muslims and Arabs because U S media have failed to help Americans understand why much of the world hates their political leadership numerous chapters
