Global Media Studies An Ethnographic Perspective:

Global Media Studies Patrick Murphy, Marwan Kraidy, Marwan M. Kraidy, 2003 Global Media Studies explores the theoretical and methodological threats that are defining global media studies as a discipline Emphasizing the connection of globalisation to local culture this collection considers the diversity of modes of reception reception contexts uses of media content and the performative and creative relationships that audiences develop with and through the media Through ethnographic case studies from Brazil Denmark the UK Japan Lebanon Mexico South Africa Turkey and the United States the contributors address such questions as what links media consumption to a lived global culture what role cultural tradition plays globally in confronting transnational power how global elements of mediated messages acquire class and regional and local characteristics

Global Media Studies Marwan Kraidy, Patrick D. Murphy, 2004-02-24 Emphasising the connection of globalisation to local culture this collection considers the diversity of modes of reception reception contexts uses of media content and the performative and creative relationships that audiences develop

Global Media Studies Toby Miller, Marwan M. Kraidy, 2016-10-10 Global Media Studies is unique in its coverage of places peoples institutions and discourses Toby Miller and Marwan M Kraidy provide a comprehensive how to guide to the study of media going far beyond the established English language literature and drawing on the best methods and research from around the world They look at political economy global policymaking and governance and the past and present manifestations of cultural imperialism In addition to providing a survey of the field the book introduces a new form of textual analysis with a special focus on reality television as well as models of audience research The authors include original analyses of the US European Latin American and Arab worlds and case studies of mobile telephony the impact of US media and reality television This original and uniquely global textbook will be an essential resource for students of global media and international communication

International Media Studies Divya McMillin, 2009-02-04 International Media Studies is a bold introduction to the field that focuses on a de centering of media epistemology to represent a more thorough world view A comprehensive textbook exploring the current state of media studies as it is being practised across the world Takes discussions about media studies beyond other textbooks by situating the subject firmly in an international context appropriate to the globalized 21st century Surveys our reception of a wide variety of media content and formats including television magazines fiction newspapers and popular music Considers both theoretical and much needed ethnographic perspectives on media studies Showcases global and local media patterns in a variety of countries around the world including examples from Asia Africa and Latin America

Global Media Go to War Ralph D. Berenger, 2004 This book contains 45 essays from more than 60 mass media scholars around the world It is the most comprehensive analysis available of the media's role in the 2003 Iraq war The book is ideal for use in communication political science and sociological courses on media and politics
