Global Shadows Africa In The Neoliberal World Order:

Global Shadows James Ferguson, 2006-02-28 A collection of Ferguson's essays that bring the question of Africa into the center of current debates on globalization modernity and emerging forms of world order Global Heritage Assemblages Christoph Rausch, 2016-11-25 Based on multi-sited anthropological fieldwork this book describes how various governmental intergovernmental and non-governmental actors engage with colonial and post-colonial built heritage found in Eritrea Tanzania Niger and the Republic of the Congo showing how this engagement produces problematizations of the modern which ultimately indicate a need to rescue modernity from its dominant conception as an all-encompassing epochal and spatial culture The Rise of the BRICS in Africa Doctor Padraig Carmody, 2013-09-12 A little over a decade ago Africa was being spoken of in the media as the lost or hopeless continent Now it has some of the fastest growing economies in the world largely because of the impact of the BRICS Brazil Russia India China and South Africa In this first book to be written about the BRICS as a collective phenomenon Padraig Carmody reveals how their engagements with Africa both individually and collectively are often contradictory generating new inequalities and potential for development Crucially Carmody shows how the geopolitics of the BRICS countries' involvement in Africa is impacted by and impacts upon their international relations more generally and how the emergence of these economies has begun to alter the very nature of globalization which is no longer purely a Western-led project This is a path-breaking examination of Africa's changing role in the world

Xenophobia and Nativism in Africa, Latin America, and the Caribbean Sabella O. Abidde, Michael R. Hall, José de Arimatéia da Cruz, 2023-07-31 This book historicises and analyses the increasing incidence of xenophobia and nativism in Africa Latin America and the Caribbean It examines how xenophobia and nativism impact the political cohesion and social fabric of states and societies in the regions and offers solutions to aid policy formation and implementation Rather than utilising an overarching framework individual theory is applied to chapters to analyse the diverse connections between xenophobia and nativism in the regions The book explores the economic nationalistic political social cultural and psychological triggers for xenophobia and nativism and their impact on an increasingly interconnected and interrelated world In addition to the individual and comparative examination of these triggers the book outlines how they can be decreased or altered and argues that Pan-Africanism and the unity of purpose among diverse groups in the western hemisphere is still an ideal to which Africa Latin America and the Caribbean can aspire This book will be of interest to academics in the field of African history African Studies Caribbean and Latin American studies cultural anthropology and comparative sociology Neoliberalism and the State of Belonging in South Africa Derick A. Becker, 2020-02-17 This social science that eschews disciplinary boundaries this will appeal to a wide audience of scholars in the fields of political development political science African and development studies Routledge Handbook of African Literature

Carmody, 2007-10-17 Free market policies have been in operation across Africa for the past 25 years yet they have failed to reverse deepening poverty This book explores with case studies why such policies continue to be implemented and the ways in which they have been reinvented by socialization depoliticization regionalization and securitization The Politics of Poverty Felicitas Becker, 2019-06-20 An examination of poverty dynamics and developmental failure shifting emphasis from development as control to development as coping strategy Global

Shadows James Ferguson, 2006-02-28 A collection of Ferguson s essays that bring the question of Africa into the center of current debates on globalization modernity and emerging forms of world order Human Rights under the African Charter Allwell Uwazuruike, 2020-02-29 This book critically examines the civil political socioeconomic and group rights protected under the African Charter and its Protocol on women s rights It then examines the institutional protection of these rights through the African Commission and African Court The book builds on the concept of regionalism within Africa and the recent drive for finding African solutions to African problems by tracing the development of human rights within Africa and assessing the effectiveness of Africa s core regional human rights institutions In turn it critically analyses the obstacles to the full implementation of human rights in Africa such as the lack of political will jurisdictional issues lack of resources and funding poverty illiteracy corruption and customary practices that violate human rights In closing the book discusses possible solutions to these problems The International Journal of African Historical Studies , 2007 Options for Britain

II Varun Uberoi, 2010-03-08 This volume investigates the Options for Britain II project which focuses on some of the most prominent challenges for UK policy makers concentrating on those that cut across several policy areas and identifies what policy makers can do to address these challenges Mande Studies , 2009 Celebrity Colonialism Robert Clarke, 2009

Celebrity Colonialism brings together studies on an array of personalities movements and events from the colonial era to the present and explores the intersection of discourses formations and institutions that condition celebrity in colonial and postcolonial cultures Across nineteen chapters it examines the entanglements of fame and power fame in colonial and postcolonial settings Each chapter demonstrates the sometimes highly ambivalent roles played by famous personalities as endorsements and apologists for antagonists and challengers of colonial imperial and postcolonial institutions and practices And each in their way provides an insight into the complex set of meanings implied by novel term ocelebrity colonialism The contributions to this collection demonstrate that celebrity provides a powerful lens for examining the nexus of discourses institutions and practices associated with the dynamics of appropriation domination resistance and reconciliation that characterize colonial and postcolonial cultural politics Taken together the contributions to Celebrity Colonialism argue that the examination of celebrity promises to enrich our understanding of what colonialism was and more significantly what it has become

Globalization and Language Vitality Cécile B. Vigouroux, Salikoko S. Mufwene, 2008 This book discusses the effects of globalization on languages in Africa In contrast to previous studies the contributors examine whether or not globalization is affecting African languages in the same ways and at the same rate in different countries and how local experiences of language change vary from place to place Rather than seeing English as the killer language par excellence the contributors probe ways in which languages are being used side by side to complement each other in some contexts while competing against European colonial languages in others The result is a diverse canvas of language vitality in the African context including matters of endangerment and loss through the lense of globalization in its various interpretations This book is a must read for students and researchers interested in language change and death and in the fate of European languages in the rest of the world
