Edge Of Irony Modernism In The Shadow Of The Habsburg Empire:

Edge of Irony Marjorie Perloff, 2016-05-06 An earlier version of chapter 1 appeared as Avant Garde in a Different Key Karl Kraus's The Last Days of Mankind Critical Inquiry 40 no 2 Winter 2014 311 38 The Austrian Dimension in German Intellectual History David S. Luft, 2021-05-20 Tracing Austrian intellectual life from Maria Theresa to Hitler's annexation of Austria and Czechoslovakia this innovative book offers a precise and engaging account of Austrian intellectual history since the Enlightenment Here David S Luft begins by locating his narrative in the region known as Cisleithanian Austria the area to the west of the Leitha River that was the basis for the modern Austrian state after 1740 Chapter 2 provides a history of the German speaking intellectual life of these central lands of the Habsburg Monarchy Austria and Bohemia from the Enlightenment to annexation by Nazi Germany Chapters 3 to 5 identify the most important philosophers writers and social thinkers who contributed to Austrian intellectual life in the period between 1740 and 1938 1939 and address the intellectual significance of their work Elegantly written and meticulously researched Luft's book brings out the contributions of major figures such as Wittgenstein Hofmannsthal Musil Kafka Rilke and Freud but also draws attention to less well known figures such as Bolzano Brentano Grillparzer Stifter Broch and Hayek Creolizing the Modern Anca Parvulescu, Manuela Boatcă, 2022-10-15 How are modernity coloniality and interimperiality entangled Bridging the humanities and social sciences Anca Parvulescu and Manuela Boatcă provide innovative decolonial perspectives that aim to creolize modernity and the modern world system Historical Transylvania at the intersection of the Habsburg Empire the Ottoman Empire Austria Hungary and Russia offers the platform for their multi level reading of the main themes in Liviu Rebreanu's 1920 novel Ion Topics range from the question of the region's capitalist integration to antisemitism and the enslavement of Roma to multilingualism gender relations and religion Creolizing the Modern develops a comparative method for engaging with areas of the world that have inherited multiple conflicting imperial and anti imperial histories The Blossom Which We Are Nir Evron, 2020-11-01 The Blossom Which We Are traces the emergence of a distinctly modern form of human vulnerability our intimate dependence on the fragile and time bound cultural frameworks that we inhabit as it manifests in the realm of the novel Nir Evron juxtaposes seminal works from diverse national literatures to demonstrate that the trope of cultural extinction offers key insights into the emotional and ideological work performed by the realist novel With an analysis that ranges from the works of Maria Edgeworth and Walter Scott Edith Wharton's Age of Innocence and Joseph Roth's Radetzky March and Yaakov Shabtai's Past Continuous and finally to the current state of the humanities this book seeks to recover literary criticism's humanistic mission bringing the best that has been thought and said to bear on urgent contemporary concerns As German as Kafka Lene Rock, 2019-12-10 Since the turn of the 21st century countless literary endeavors by new Germans have entered the spotlight of academic research Yet minority writing with its distinctive renegotiation of traditional concepts of cultural identity is far from a recent phenomenon in German literature A hundred years previously the intense involvement of German Jewish intellectuals in cultural and political discourses on Jewish identity put a clear stamp on German modernism This book is the first to unfold literary parallels between these two riveting periods in German cultural history Drawing on the philosophical oeuvre of Jean Luc Nancy a comparative reading of texts by amongst others Beer Hofmann Kermani Zdamar Roth Schnitzler and Zaimoglu examines a variety of literary approaches to the thorny issue of cultural identity while developing an overarching perspective on the politics of literature

The Quest for Redemption Rares G. Piloiu, 2018-09-15 The Quest for Redemption Central European Jewish Thought in Joseph Roth's Works by Rares Piloiu fills an important gap in Roth scholarship placing Roth's major works of fiction for the first time in the context of a generational interest in religious redemption among the Jewish intellectuals of Central Europe In it Piloiu argues that Roth's challenging often contradictory and ambivalent literary output is the result of an attempt to recast moral political and historical realities of an empirically observable world in a new religiously transfigured reality through the medium of literature This diegetic recasting of phenomenological encounters with the real is an expression of Roth's belief that since the self and the world are in a continuing state of crisis issuing from their separation in modernity a restoration of their unity is necessary to redeem the historical existence of individuals and communities alike Piloiu notes however that Roth's enterprise in this is not unique to his work but rather is shared by an entire generation of Central European Jewish intellectuals This generation disillusioned by modernity's excessive secularism rationalism and nationalism sought a radical solution in the revival of mystical religious traditions above all in the Judaic idea of messianic redemption Their use of the Chasidic notion of redemption was highly original in that it stripped the notion of its original theological meaning and applied it to the secular experience of reality As a result Roth's quest for redemption is a quest for a salvation of the individual not outside but within history
