Existentialism is a Humanism Jean-Paul Sartre, 2007-07-24 This book presents a new English translation of two seminal works by Jean Paul Sartre the most dominant European intellectual of the post World War II decades The volume includes Sartre s 1945 lecture Existentialism Is a Humanism and his analysis of Camus s The Stranger along with a discussion of these works by acclaimed Sartre biographer Annie Cohen Solal This edition is a translation of the 1996 French edition which includes Arlette Elka m Sartre s introduction and a Q A with Sartre about his lecture In her foreword intended for an American audience acclaimed Sartre biographer Annie Cohen Solal offers an assessment of both works It was to correct common misconceptions about his thought that Sartre accepted an invitation to speak on October 29 1945 at the Club Maintenant in Paris The unstated objective of his lecture Existentialism Is a Humanism was to expound his philosophy as a form of existentialism a term much bandied about at the time Sartre asserted that existentialism was essentially a doctrine for philosophers though ironically he was about to make it accessible to a general audience The published text of his lecture quickly became one of the bibles of existentialism and made Sartre an international celebrity The idea of freedom occupies the center of Sartre s doctrine Man born into an empty godless universe is nothing to begin with He creates his essence his self his being through the choices he freely makes existence precedes essence Were it not for the contingency of his death he would never end Choosing to be this or that is to affirm the value of what we choose In choosing therefore we commit not only ourselves but all of mankind

Essence and Existence James Alabi, 2018-08-20 Essay from the year 2009 in the subject Philosophy Miscellaneous language English abstract The terms essence and existence have dominated philosophical discussions for centuries at least from the era of Plato up to the contemporary times The central issue at the heart of this discourse in the preliminary stage had to do with the question of what actually makes an essence of an existing entity For example if you say God philosophers will probe further to ask what is the essence of God In other words what are those characteristics that are truly exclusive to God If again you say a Satsuma a type of orange exists then one will be prompted to ask as to what features distinguish it from a tangerine That is what are those distinctive qualities essentially immaterial that will not make me call an existential Satsuma a tangerine What the inquirer is demanding is simply something more than mere the Satsuma or any of the accidental features like colour taste etc Questions have also been raised in terms of what actually exists as against what is believed to exist The discourse quickly like wild fire moved from the level of mere conceptualizing the terms to the level of philosophers trying to find out which of essence and existence precedes each other In other words granted at least at level of assumption that both human and objects exist philosophers are asking whether their essence precedes their existence The battle to resolve this crisis of concepts pitted modern Christian philosophers like Bishop George Berkeley and Immanuel Kant against contemporary existentialists like Jean Paul Sartre and Martin Heidegger The former school led by Berkeley in its submission had argued that essence precedes existence while the latter championed by extensively by Sartre disagrees saying existence precedes essence However there are other variations to the discourse but it is sufficient for the scope of this paper to limit discussion to these two with more emphasis on Sartre Existentialism: A Guide for the Perplexed Steven
