Excitable Speech Excitable Speech:

Excitable Speech Judith Butler, 1997 On hate speech and power of speech Excitable Speech Judith Butler, 2013-10-18 With the same intellectual courage with which she addressed issues of gender Judith Butler turns her attention to speech and conduct in contemporary political life looking at several efforts to target speech as conduct that has become subject to political debate and regulation Reviewing hate speech regulations anti pornography arguments and recent controversies about gay self declaration in the military Judith Butler asks whether and how language acts in each of these cultural sites Interpreting Primo Levi Arthur Chapman, Minna Vuohelainen, 2016-04-29 The legacy of antifascist partisan Auschwitz survivor and author Primo Levi continues to drive exciting interdisciplinary scholarship The contributions to this intellectually rich tightly organized volume from many of the world s foremost Levi scholars show a remarkable breadth across fields as varied as ethics memory and media studies What Is Theology? Adam Kotsko, 2021-09-07 The secular world may have thought it was done with theology but theology was not done with it Recent decades have seen a resurgence of religion on the social and political scene which have driven thinkers across many disciplines to grapple with the Christian theological inheritance of the modern world Adam Kotsko provides a unique guide to this fraught terrain The title essay establishes a fresh and unexpected redefinition of theology and its complex and often polemical relationship with its sister discipline of philosophy Subsequent essays build on this framework from three different perspectives In the first part Kotsko demonstrates the continued vibrancy of Christian theology as a creative and constructive pursuit outside the walls of the church showing that theological concepts can underwrite a powerful critique of the modern world The second approaches Christian theology from the perspective of a range of contemporary philosophers showing how philosophical thought is drawn to theology even despite itself The concluding section is devoted to the unexpected theological roots of the modern world system making a case that the interplay of state and economy and the structure of modern racial oppression both build on theological patterns of thought Kotsko s book ultimately shows that theology is not a scholarly game or an edifying spiritual discipline but a world shaping force of great power Lives are at stake when we do theology and if we don t do it someone else will Performative Contradiction and the Romanian Revolution Jolan Bogdan, 2017-03-29 The Romanian Revolution of 1989 ended 42 years of Communist rule It was the bloodiest revolution in a Warsaw Pact country culminating in the overthrow and execution of Nicolae Ceau escu However there was no major democratic reform and power remained in the hands of key figures from the old regime This has led many theorists to question the authenticity of the entire revolution Performative Contradiction and the Romanian Revolution focuses in on the circumstances which led to these accusations It argues that the notion of an authentic revolution as a conceptual paradigm is neither a sufficient appropriate nor useful tool for an analysis of the events in Romania Engaging with the work of theorists including Stiegler Agamben Baudrillard Badiou Spinoza and Derrida it argues that performative contradiction is a more useful theoretical model for exploring this event

Applying the concept to specific cases within the revolution the book demonstrates the power of performative contradiction as an analytic tool

Engaging Film Tim Cresswell, Deborah Dixon, 2002 Engaging Film is a creative interdisciplinary volume that explores the engagements among film space and identity and features a section on the use of films in the classroom as a critical pedagogical tool Focusing on anti essentialist themes in films and film production this book examines how social and spatial identities are produced or dissolved in films and how mobility is used to create different experiences of time and space From popular movies such as Pulp Fiction Bulworth Terminator 2 and The Crying Game to home movies and avant garde films the analyses and teaching methods in this collection will engage students and researchers in film and media studies cultural geography social theory and cultural studies

Living Across and Through Skins Shannon Sullivan, 2001 Explores the dynamic relationship between bodies and the world around them What if we lived across and through our skins as much as we do within them According to Shannon Sullivan the notion of bodies in transaction with their social political cultural and physical surroundings is not new Early in the 20th century John Dewey elaborated human existence as a set of patterns of behavior or actions shaped by the environment Underscoring the continued relevance of his thought Sullivan brings Dewey into conversation with Continental philosophers Nietzsche and Merleau Ponty and feminist philosophers Butler and Harding to expand thinking about the body Emphasizing topics such as the role of habit the discursivity of bodies communication and meaning personal and cultural structures of gender the improvement of bodily experience and understandings of truth and objectivity Living Across and Through Skins acknowledges the importance of the body s experience without placing it in opposition to psychological cultural and social aspects of human life By focusing on what bodies do rather than what they are Sullivan prompts a closer look at concrete physical transactions that might be changed to improve human experiences of the world
