Meza, 2022-04-05 The influential rooms of Elkins Taylor Dickinson and other great talents as photographed by Fred Lyon represent the innovation and splendor of postwar Northern California interiors which continue to inspire the work of designers today From the 1940s to the 1980s some of the best residences in Northern California were decorated by a coterie of designers whose names were once recognized only by the cognoscenti of interior design From Frances Elkins and Tony Hail with their aristocratic aesthetics to Michael Taylor and John Dickinson with their bold fantasies these designers created revolutionary settings that were idiomatic of their time and place fresh luxurious spaces complementing the various terrains and lifestyles of the northern part of the state Fred Lyon b 1924 is perhaps the only photographer who knew and documented the work of this talented group Akin to what Julius Shulman was doing in Southern California Lyon worked closely with the designers and magazine editors to help shape the look for posterity In the years following the work of these giants most of the spaces they created are gone or vastly changed replaced by different tastes and new styles Now re appreciated for their artistry we can relive this exciting era through Lyon s superb photography

Notable Americans of Czechoslovak Ancestry in Arts and Letters and in Education Miloslav Rechcigl Jr.,2021-11-02 As pointed out in my last two publications no comprehensive study has been undertaken about the American Learned Men and Women with Czechoslovak roots The aim of this work is to correct this glaring deficiency with the focus on immigration from the period of mass migration and beyond irrespective whether they were born in their European ancestral homes or whether they have descended from them Whereas in the two mentioned monographs the emphasis has been on scholars and social and natural scientists and men and women in medicine applied sciences and engineering respectively the present compendium deals with notable Americans of Czechoslovak ancestry in arts and letters and in education With respect to women although most professional fields were closed to them through much of the nineteenth century the area of arts and letters was opened to them as noted earlier and as this compendium authenticates Francis Elkins: Interior Design Stephen M.
