Foundations For Mission Regnum Edinburgh Centenary:

Foundations for Mission Emma Wild-Wood, Peniel Rajkumar, 2013-01-11 This volume provides an important resource for those wishing to gain an overview of significant issues in contemporary missiology whilst understanding how they are applied in particular contexts Contributors from across the globe and from different Christian traditions explore foundations for mission The chapters examine in what ways experience the Bible and theology are foundational for mission and how they together inform the missional thought of different traditions The book also raises questions about the continued use of foundations as a helpful metaphor mission reflection and impetus Graduate students and scholars surveying the field will find this a useful and accessible way to understand changing trends within mission studies Theology of the Spirit in

Doctrine and Demonstration Teresa Chai, 2015-01-09 This book is a festschrift a book of essays in honor of noted Pentecostal scholars Wonsuk and Julie Ma The list of scholars below representing a broad array of nationalities and academic disciplines have followed the theme of A Theology of The Spirit in contributing articles within areas of their particular interest and expertise Allan Anderson J Kwabena Asamoah Gyadu R G dela Cruz Rose Engcoy Harold D Hunter Dave Johnson Veli Matti Karkkainen Kirsteen Kim Robert Menzies Ekputa Tupamahu and Amos Yong In short the scope of the book is universal in describing the person and work of the Holy Spirit through a number of the various strands of the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements in the world today Foundations for Mission EMMA WILD-WOOD; PENIEL RAJKUMAR., 2012

Foundations for Mission Emma Wild-Wood, 2012 The Missions and Missional Purpose of Ephesians Timothy A. van Aarde, 2023-01-12 The purpose of the letter to the Ephesians is unknown The book suggests that the purpose of Ephesians is about missions and being missional The author of Ephesians committed the task of missions to the church The author located the mission of the church in the redemptive plan of God The redemptive plan oikonomia of God consists of historical epochs of missions the mission of Israel the mission of Christ the mission of the disciples the mission of the apostles and the mission of the church The term missional has been used ambiguously The existence of a distinction between the mission of the church and missional church is demonstrated and both expressions of mission are grounded in the biblical text of Ephesians The mission of the church is grounded in an exposition of Eph 1 3 and the missional church is grounded in an exposition of Eph 4 6 The author of the letter intended for the mission to the nations to be continued by the church this is the mission of the church He intended for the members of the church to continue to reach out to their local community this is expressed by the missional church The mission of the church has been grounded in the Great Commission The missional church is grounded in the values morals and lifestyle principles set out in Eph 4 6 The Second Commandment Joey R.

Peyton, 2024-02-07 In an increasingly broken world filled with hate and violence God's plan from the beginning was to save and restore the world to the glory for which he had created it This simple plan has not changed with the evolution of sin time or man's rejection of his creator Rather God's simple twofold plan of redemption included both a commandment to love the creator with all one's heart, mind, soul, and strength and a commandment to love one's neighbor as one's self. Neither commandment stands in isolation for one cannot fully love others without a consuming love for God and neither can one completely love God without a love for the neighbor created by God. The answer to hate is love, the answer to war is love, the answer to violence is love, and the answer to all of societal disfunction is love. The answer is not a commandment to like God and others because one only likes others because of likeness. Rather, love is a choice. A choice to love what you don't like. A choice to love what you don't understand. A choice to love until the God you love sets everything right in eternity. Tides of Opportunity Sadiri Joy Tira, Damples Dulcero-Baclagon, Lorajoy Tira-Dimangundayao, 2024-05-21. Hope and Hospitality for Migrating People. Never have so many people left their homes and migrated to other parts of the world as we've seen in recent years. This phenomenon creates as many opportunities as challenges. We are witnessing a massive increase in urbanization, pluralization, multiculturalism, and interfaith dialogue. What are the implications for the church as it tries to reach the nations? Tides of Opportunity brings together experts from diverse backgrounds to consider the practical significance of this mass migration. The reasons for these population movements are as varied as the people. Sadiri Joy Tira explores several causes like military conflict, economic hardship, and natural disasters. The contributors not only explain such trends but suggest possible ways to engage with diaspora neighbors. Through case studies, this volume also examines lesser known dynamics such as sex trafficking and the movement of immigrants to rural areas. This book challenges us to find more creative and integrated mission strategies for effectively reaching out to the various peoples on the move with the gospel. How will you respond to the tides of opportunity? Mission from the Perspective of the Other Tim Noble, 2018-08-30. Christian mission involves God, the missionary, and the other, the recipient of mission. This book argues for the centrality of this other in the practice of mission. The other, as child of God, is presented not as an empty vessel waiting to be filled but as the one who draws near to the missionary. Both are sent by God and together they enter into the journey towards God. Drawing on Scripture, contemporary missiology, and phenomenology, the book argues for the importance of this often neglected other and demonstrates through historical case studies involving Saint Ignatius of Loyola, William Carey, and Saint Innocent of Alaska that the recognition of the gift of the other has always been present in Christian mission and can continue to inspire. Edinburgh 2010 Daryl Balia, Kirsteen Kim, 2010-08-01. The Centenary of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh in 1910 is a suggestive moment for many people seeking direction for Christian mission in the twenty-first century. Since 2005, an international group has worked collaboratively to develop an intercontinental and multid denominational project now known as Edinburgh 2010 and based at New College University of Edinburgh. Essential to the work of the Edinburgh 1910 Conference and of abiding value were the findings of the eight think tanks or commissions. These inspired the idea of a new round of collaborative reflection on Christian mission but now focused on nine themes identified as being key to mission in the twenty-first century. The study process is intended to contribute from a research perspective to the aim of Edinburgh 2010 witnessing together to Christ in the twenty first century and to the development of a new vision in terms of God's purposes for creation in Christ and a renewed spirituality and mission ethos in the life of churches worldwide Witnessing to Christ Today contains a summary of what has been achieved through the study process up to the end of 2009 and forms the preparatory volume for the centenary conference to be held in Edinburgh on 2-6 June 2010 There the material will be subjected to rigorous critique from various transversal perspectives and engaged with by church and mission delegates from around the world Book jacket Edinburgh 2010 Kirsteen Kim, Andrew Anderson, 2011-12-12

Edinburgh 2010 engaged in serious study and reflection on the current state of world mission and the challenges facing all those who seek to witness Christ today This record of the conference is intended to stimulate informed and focused participation in God's mission in Christ for the world's salvation Edinburgh 2010 David A.
