Joint Fact-Finding Committee on Un-American Activities in California,1948 Only Victims Robert Vaughn,1996 In a dramatic change of role the noted television and film star has written a vivid and incisive account of the House Committee on Un American Activities probe of the entertainment industry from 1938 to 1958 Formed to investigate alleged subversives by the late fifties the committee had succeeded in ruining the careers and sometimes the lives of many of Hollywood and Broadway s top writers and performers Quoting generously from transcripts of its hearings Vaughn shows how the committee s primary purpose was punitive rather than legislative and concludes that its most serious damage to American theatre and film is not easily documented the loss of all the words never written or spoken because of the impact and the fear of the committee s misdeeds

Hollywood and Anticommunism John J. Gladchuk,2013-10-11 This work concentrates on tracing the evolution of the so called red menace phenomenon as a means of demonstrating the correlation between growing American paranoia and the success of the anticommunist campaign 1935 1955 The House Committee on Un American Activities 1947 investigation of Hollywood the nation s most visible industry served a critical role in conjuring up anti red hysteria and fanning the flames of virulent anticommunism Using conveniently unjust tactics the Committee painted targeted Hollywood personalities red and established the infamous blacklist certified proof in the minds of many that subversives were indeed conspiring from within A failed attempt on behalf of the Hollywood Ten to demonstrate the Committee s undemocratic nature allowed HUAC to forge ahead with its investigation and establish the anticommunist foundation upon which Joseph McCarthy would construct his campaign Hollywood and Anticommunism stands as an important contribution to McCarthy era literature and should appeal to all interested in the early Cold War and the impact that unwarranted hysteria has had and continues to have on the growth and development of the nation
