Forward Together A Moral Message For The Nation:

Forward Together William J. Barber II, Barbara Zelzer, 2014-10-30 North Carolina's Moral Monday protests have drawn tens of thousands of protestors in what has been called the new Civil Rights Movement Forward Together A Moral Message for the Nation shares the theological foundation for the Moral Monday movement serving as a proclamation of a new American movement seeking equal treatment and opportunity for all regardless of economic status sexual preference belief race geography and any other discriminatory bases The book will also serve as a model for other movements across the country and around the world using North Carolina as a case study providing useful practical tips about grassroots organizing and transformative leadership Organizing Church Tim Conder, Daniel Rhodes, 2017-03-21 The 21st century is the age of community organizing from rallies in the streets to online movements for change What if congregations embraced community organizing Organizing Church offers a unique perspective that blends proven principles of community organizing and research on socially active congregations into a formula that will revitalize and empower churches as change agents Seasoned pastors and community activists Tim Conder and Dan Rhodes will help pastors and other church leaders build healthier congregations create a deep culture of discipleship in their community and respond to the challenges presented by the global culture of the 21st century Organizing Church is the essential field guide for joining the social justice movement today Freedom Church of the Poor Colleen Wessel-McCoy, 2021-08-19 When King looked over into the promised land and tried to discern how we would get there he called the poor to lead the way The Poor People's Campaign was part of a political strategy for building a movement expansive enough to tackle the enmeshed evils of racism poverty and war In Freedom Church of the Poor Martin Luther King Jr's Poor People's Campaign Colleen Wessel McCoy roots King's political vision solidly in his theological ethics and traces the spirit of the campaign in the community and religious leaders who are responding to the devastating crises of inequality today A Darkly Radiant Vision Gary Dorrien, 2023-07-25 The third and final volume in the first comprehensive history of Black social Christianity by the greatest theological ethicist of the twenty first century Michael Eric Dyson The Black social gospel is a tradition of unsurpassed and ongoing importance in American life argues Gary Dorrien in his groundbreaking trilogy on the history of Black social Christianity This concluding volume an interpretation of the tradition since the early 1970s follows Dorrien's award winning The New Abolition W E B Du Bois and the Black Social Gospel and Breaking White Supremacy Martin Luther King Jr and the Black Social Gospel Beginning in the shadow of Martin Luther King Jr Dorrien examines the past fifty years of this intellectual and activist tradition interpreting its politics theology ethics social criticism and social justice organizing He argues that Black social Christianity is today an intersectional tradition of discourse and activist religion that interrelates liberation theology womanist theology antiracist politics LGBTQ theory cultural criticism progressive religion broad based interfaith organizing and global solidarity politics A Darkly Radiant Vision features in depth discussions of Andrew Young Jesse Jackson Samuel

Covering topics ranging from the Moral Monday movement to Christian films and performers Religion and Media in America is a qualitative study of the ways in which religion has been woven into American popular and civic culture This book explores how Christianity both adapts to and is affected by new media forms Its six chapters address religious activism government imposition of religiosity into secular culture religious entertainment Bible translations marketed as consumer goods and how religious satire comes from both religious and secular sources Recommended for scholars and students interested in media studies film studies religion communication American history American studies political science and popular culture      National Message and Banner ,1963      Coast Banker ,1921      Taking Wrongs Seriously Elazar Barkan, Alexander Karn, 2006 This multi disciplinary collection examines the recent wave of political apologies for acts of past injustice      The PTA Magazine ,1921      The Third Reconstruction The Reverend Dr. William J. Barber II, Jonathan Wilson-Hartgrove, 2016-10-18 A modern day civil rights champion tells the stirring story of how he helped start a movement to bridge America's racial divide Over the summer of 2013 the Reverend Dr William J Barber II led more than a hundred thousand people at rallies across North Carolina to protest restrictions to voting access and an extreme makeover of state government These protests the largest state government focused civil disobedience campaign in American history came to be known as Moral Mondays and have since blossomed in states as diverse as Florida Tennessee Wisconsin Ohio and New York At a time when divide and conquer politics are exacerbating racial strife and economic inequality Rev Barber offers an impassioned historically grounded argument that Moral Mondays are hard evidence of an embryonic Third Reconstruction in America The first Reconstruction briefly flourished after Emancipation and the second Reconstruction ushered in meaningful progress in the civil rights era But both were met by ferocious reactionary measures that severely curtailed and in many cases rolled back racial and economic progress This Third Reconstruction is a profoundly moral awakening of justice loving people united in a fusion coalition powerful enough to reclaim the possibility of democracy even in the face of corporate financed extremism In this memoir of how Rev Barber and allies as diverse as progressive Christians union members and immigration rights activists came together to build a coalition he offers a trenchant analysis of race based inequality and a hopeful message for a nation grappling with persistent racial and economic injustice Rev Barber writes movingly and pragmatically about how he laid the groundwork for a state by state movement that unites black white and brown rich and poor employed and unemployed gay and straight documented and undocumented religious and secular Only such a diverse fusion movement Rev Barber argues can heal our nation's wounds and produce public policy that is morally defensible constitutionally consistent and economically sane The Third Reconstruction is both a blueprint for movement building and an inspiring call to action from the twenty first century's most effective grassroots organizer      National Parent-teacher
