Self-Commentary in Early Modern European Literature, 1400-1700 Francesco Venturi, 2019-05-15 This volume investigates the various ways in which writers comment on present and defend their own works and at the same time themselves across early modern Europe A multiplicity of self commenting modes ranging from annotations to explicatory prose to prefaces to separate critical texts and exemplifying a variety of literary genres are subjected to analysis Self commentaries are more than just an external apparatus they direct and control reception of the primary text thus affecting notions of authorship and readership With the writer understood as a potentially very influential and often tendentious interpreter of their own work the essays in this collection offer new perspectives on pre modern and modern forms of critical self consciousness self representation and self validation Contributors are Harriet Archer Gilles Bertheau Carlo Caruso Jeroen De Keyser Russell Ganim Joseph Harris Ian Johnson Richard Maber Martin McLaughlin John O'Brien Magdalena Oarska Federica Pich Brian Richardson Els Stronks and Colin Thompson

The Poetry of Loss Judith Harris, 2023-05-15 The Poetry of Loss Romantic and Contemporary Elegies presents a renewed look at elegy as a long standing tradition in the literature of loss exploring recent shifts in the continuum of these memorial poems This volume investigates the tensions arising in elegiac formulations of grief through detailed analyses of seminal poets including Wordsworth Keats and Plath using psychoanalytic precepts to reconceptualize consolation through poetic strategies of inner representation and what it might mean for personal and collective experiences of loss Tracing the development of elegy beyond extant readings this volume addresses contemporary constructs of mourning and their attendant polemics within the wider culture as extensions of elegiac longings and the tendency to refuse consolation and cede to the endlessness of grief Furthermore this book concludes that contemporary elegies break with conventions of poetic structure and expression rather than the poets seeking resolution to grief through compensation they often find themselves dwelling within the loss rather than externalizing and transcending it The Poetry of Loss Romantic and Contemporary Elegies examines these developing psychoanalytic concepts pertaining to a poetics of loss providing readers with a new appreciation of mourning culture and contemporary attitudes towards grief

Psalms and the Use of the Critical Imagination Katherine E. Southwood, Holly Morse, 2022-03-10 The contributors provide fresh insight into the context surrounding the composition and reception of the Psalms the relationships between the Psalms and of early audiences who engaged with the material Close attention is also paid to specific interpretative problems which emerge in the Psalms both linguistic and theological Consequently there is the creation of a more sophisticated historical reconstruction of how the Psalms were used originally and in subsequent periods opening up challenges and possibilities for scholars through emphasizing the need in critical Psalms scholarship for vitality and imagination

Coleridge's Ancient Mariner J. C. C. Mays, 2016-10-27 This is the first book length study to read the Ancient Mariner as poetry in Coleridge's own particular sense of the word Coleridge's complicated relationship with the Mariner as an experimental poem lies in its origin as a joint project with Wordsworth J C C Mays traces the changes in the several versions published in Coleridge's lifetime and shows how Wordsworth's troubled reaction to the poem influenced its subsequent interpretation This is also the first book to situate the Mariner in the context of the entirety of Coleridge's prose and verse now available in the Bollingen Collected edition and Notebooks that is not only in relation to other poems like The Ballad of the Dark Lady and Alice du Cl's but also to ideas in his literary criticism especially Biographia Literaria philosophy and theology Using a combination of close reading and broad historical considerations reception theory and book history Mays surveys the poem s continuing life in illustrated editions and educational textbooks its passage through the vicissitudes of New Criticism and critical theory and in a final chapter its surprising affinities with some experimental poems of the present time

Ganim, 2014-07-14 John M Ganim presents a revised theory of late medieval literary history based on the relationship of the poet to the reader His work shows how the increasingly compromised exemplary intent of later medieval poets led them to dramatize the reader as a character in the text and to develop complex forms of narrative characterized by discontinuity distortion and disorientation Originally published in 1983 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the
