Entangled (Portraits Book #1) Tracie Peterson, 1997-02-01 Professional attractive and dedicated to the youth of today Cara Kessler seems to incorporate the ideal attributes of a political candidate But as a young widow running for office is the last thing Cara wants for herself or the daughter she is raising alone Cruelly manipulated into a heated election race Cara's only hope is to stay one step ahead of her power hungry running mate As the truth of the would be governor's political and personal life comes to light Cara enlists the help of Lieutenant Harry Oberlin a state trooper intent on earning her trust and her love Still holding close the memory of her late husband can Cara dare surrender her heart when so much is at stake Tracie Peterson has authored over fifteen inspirational romance novels A full time writer and speaker her latest venture is a joint writing project with Judith Pella titled the RIBBONS OF STEEL series Hybrid Photography Sara

Hillnhuetter, Stefanie Klamm, Friedrich Tietjen, 2021-04-07 This book explores the territories where manual graphic photographic and digital techniques interfere and interlace in sciences and humanities It operates on the assumption that when photography was introduced it did not oust other methods of image production but rather became part of ever more specialized and sophisticated technologies of representation The epistemological break commonly set with the advent of photography since the nineteenth century has probably been triggered by photographic techniques but certainly owes much to the availability of a plethora of hybrid media media that influence the relation of sciences humanities and their methods and subjects This book will be of interest to scholars in art and visual culture photography and history of photography

Musical Portraits Joshua S. Walden, 2018 Joshua S Walden's study of the genre of musical portraiture since 1945 focuses on significant composers of the period including Pierre Boulez Morton Feldman Philip Glass and Gyrgy Ligeti Grounding his exploration in key works Walden uncovers contemporary understandings of music's capacity to depict identity and of intersections between music literature theater film and the visual arts Portraiture & Photography in Africa John Peffer, Elisabeth Lynn Cameron, 2013 Beautifully illustrated Portrait Photography in Africa offers new interpretations of the cultural and historical roles of photography in Africa Twelve leading scholars look at early photographs important photographers studios the uses of portraiture in the 19th century and the current passion for portraits in Africa They review a variety of topics including what defines a common culture of photography the social and political implications of changing technologies for portraiture and the lasting effects of culture on the idea of the person depicted in the photographic image

Touring the Planck Scale Piero Nicolini, 2025-08-21 This book in honor of Antonio Aurilia provides an overview of one of the most mysterious research fields in theoretical physics namely the fundamental interactions at energies between the electroweak scale and the Planck scale The latter includes physics beyond the Standard Model strings and p branes quantum gravity quantum black holes and early Universe cosmology A related goal of the work is to present the physical conditions upon which some piece of evidence of new physics at extreme energies can be exposed at current or near future experimental facilities The work is organized in three parts The first part schematically introduces the problem of fundamental interactions and summarizes the life and work of Prof Aurilia The second part forms the body of the book It contains contributions from internationally recognized specialists who collaborated with Prof Aurilia such as R Balbinot B Carr G Dvali A Fabbri P Gaete J A Helay l Neto R Mann J Mureika D Singleton A Smailagic E Spallucci and P Townsend The third part summarizes the work and draws the conclusions with particular attention to future developments

The Pilgrim's Progress, Etc. With Plates, Including a Portrait John Bunyan,1812 Unfixed Jennifer Bajorek,2020-02-07 In Unfixed Jennifer Bajorek traces the relationship between photography and decolonial political imagination in Francophone west Africa in the years immediately leading up to and following independence from French colonial rule in 1960 Focusing on images created by photographers based in Senegal and Benin Bajorek draws on formal analyses of images and ethnographic fieldwork with photographers to show how photography not only reflected but also actively contributed to social and political change The proliferation of photographic imagery through studio portraiture bureaucratic ID cards political reportage and photojournalism magazines and more provided the means for west Africans to express their experiences shape public and political discourse and reimagine their world In delineating how west Africans embrace of photography was associated with and helped spur the democratization of political participation and the development of labor and liberation movements Bajorek tells a new history of photography in west Africa one that theorizes photography s capacity for doing decolonial work
