Entry Points Carin Kuoni, Chelsea Haines, 2016-01-22 Providing a lively snapshot of the state of art and social justice today on a global level Entry Points accompanies the inaugural Vera List Center Prize for Art and Politics launched at The New School on the occasion of the center's twentieth anniversary This book captures some of the most significant worldwide examples of art and social justice and introduces an interested audience of artists policy makers scholars and writers to new ways of thinking about how justice is defined advanced and practiced through the arts In so doing it assembles some of the latest scholarship in this field while refining our vocabulary for speaking about social justice social engagement community enhancement empowerment and even art itself The book's first half contains three essays by Thomas Keenan Jo o Ribas and Sharon Sliwinski that map the field of art and social justice These essays are accompanied by more than twenty profiles of recent artist projects that consist of brief essays and artist pages This curated and carefully considered map of artists and projects identifies key moments in art and social justice The book's second half consists of an in depth analysis of Theaster Gates's The Dorchester Projects which won the inaugural Vera List Prize for Art and Politics Produced to complement the project's exhibition at the Sheila C Johnson Design Center Parsons School of Design in September 2013 this analysis illuminates Gates's rich complex and exemplary work This section includes an interview between Gates and Vera List Center director Carin Kuoni essays by Horace D Ballard Jr Romi N Crawford Shannon Jackson and Mabel O Wilson and a number of responses to The Dorchester Projects by faculty in departments across The New School Published by Duke University Press and the Vera List Center for Art and Politics at The New School

Social Justice for Children and Young People Caroline S. Clauss-Ehlers, Aradhana Bela Sood, Mark D. Weist, 2020-08-27 According to the Convention on the Rights of the Child the goal of a social justice approach for children is to ensure that children are better served and protected by justice systems including the security and social welfare sectors Despite this worthy goal the UN documents how children are rarely viewed as stakeholders in justice rules of law child justice issues are often dealt with separate from larger justice and security issues and when justice issues for children are addressed it is often through a siloed rather than a comprehensive approach This volume actively challenges the current youth social justice paradigm through terminology and new approaches that place children and young people front and center in the social justice conversation Through international consideration children and young people worldwide are incorporated into the social justice conversation

Visual Methods for Social Justice in Education Laura Azzarito, 2023-05-02 This book makes a case for the usefulness of visual research methods for advancing a social justice agenda in education The author aims to provide education researchers with a wide range of qualitative visual research tools to invoke different stories voices embodiments and experiences of individuals from marginalized communities to advance emancipatory research projects to embrace interdisciplinary knowledge building and to counter narrate Western forms of knowledge cultures and values for the reimagining of education for social change It draws attention to the importance of visual methods in today's neoliberal landscape of education to speak back to mainstream research and practices especially when research participants lack words to describe express and represent what it means to be impacted by oppression and marginalization

Social Justice in These Times James O'Donnell, Marc Pruyn, Rudolfo Chávez Chávez, 2006-11-01 This text covers the philosophy theory and praxis of social justice engaging within cultural pedagogical and political contexts and neo liberalism George W Bush and the No Child Left Behind Act
