Developing Human Resources

Christopher Mabey, Rosemary Thomson, 2012-08-21 Developing Human Resources is aimed at managers wishing to understand their role in human resource strategy. In a clear succinct way the authors cover the skills and techniques required to design and implement an effective HRD policy. In addition they tackle the important tasks of team building recruitment and change management as well as the role you play in motivating and appraising your staff. Real examples and case studies are used throughout to illustrate points in a practical context. Developing Human Resources is designed to provide the underpinning knowledge and understanding required for any competency based management course. It is based upon the Management Charter Initiative's Occupational Standards for Management NVQs and SVQs at Levels 4 & 5. It is particularly suitable also for managers on Certificate and Diploma in Management programmes including those accredited by BTEC. Rosemary Thomson and Dr Christopher Mabey are both lecturers in human resource management at the Open Business School. Series adviser Paul Jervis. The Institute of Management is the leading management institute in the UK and the largest in Europe. The institute embraces all levels of management from management students to senior executives. It offers a unique range of services for all management disciplines enabling managers to develop themselves throughout their careers. handful of those whom we consider as leaders have given their insights regarding leadership It is a must to realize what leadership is for these people who have become leaders themselves Lao Tzu had something to say about leadership This much revered ancient Chinese philosopher and founder of Taoism is a leader himself His influences not only on his homeland but also on the entirety of the world have been so vast and powerful that his teachings continue to live on until today Lao Tzu said A leader is best when people barely know he exists when his work is done his aim fulfilled they will all say we did it ourselves Lao Tzu's thought on leadership is a rather deep one extending beyond the physical For Lao Tzu a leader does his job best when he can make his men accomplish their mission without him actually taking part in the physical endeavors A leader is someone who brings out his men's best potential not someone who does most of the work One of the greatest military leaders in the world's history the French general and emperor Napoleon Bonaparte appears to share almost the same thoughts of leadership with Lao Tzu When I give a minister an order I leave it to him to find the means to carry it out For him leadership is not about directing people all the way through getting a job done Being a leader involves choosing the right men to do the right job and letting them do it their way
