Vineeta Chand,2009 Queering Paradigms IV Elizabeth Sara Lewis,Rodrigo Borba,Branca Falabella Fabrício,Diana de Souza Pinto,2014 This book is composed of research presented at the fourth international Queering Paradigms Conference QP4 held in Rio de Janeiro Brazil It intends to contribute to building a queer postcolonial critique of the current politics of queer activism and of queer knowledge production and circulation Globalization and Language Vitality Cécile B. Vigouroux,Salikoko S. Mufwene,2008 This book discusses the effects of globalization on languages in Africa In contrast to previous studies the contributors examine whether or not globalization is affecting African languages in the same ways and at the same rate in different countries and how local experiences of language change vary from place to place Rather than seeing English as the killer language par excellence the contributors probe ways in which languages are being used side by side to complement each other in some contexts while competing against European colonial languages in others The result is a diverse canvas of language vitality in the African context including matters of endangerment and loss through the lense of globalization in its various interpretations This book is a must read for students and researchers interested in language change and death and in the fate of European languages in the rest of the world

English as a Local Language Christina Higgins,2009 When analyzed in multilingual contexts English is often treated as an entity that is separable from its linguistic environment It is often the case however that multilinguals use English in hybrid and transcultural ways This book explores how multilingual East Africans make use of English as a local resource in their everyday practices by examining a range of domains including workplace conversation beauty pageants hip hop and advertising Drawing on the Bakhtinian concept of multivocality the author uses discourse analysis and ethnographic approaches to demonstrate the range of linguistic and cultural hybridity found across these domains and to consider the constraints on hybridity in each context By focusing on the cultural and linguistic bricolage in which English is often found the book illustrates how multilinguals respond to the tension between local identification and dominant conceptualizations of English as a language for global communication Performing English with a Postcolonial Accent Angeles

Clemente, Michael J. Higgins, 2008 Taking a critical perspective and using postcolonial paradigms the authors draw on the experiences of students in Oaxaca Mexico to examine the issues raised by postcolonial English This book is intended for scholars and students in applied linguistics cultural anthropology and cultural studies Education Teaching Decolonizing Literacy Gregorio Hernandez-Zamora, 2010 Drawing from case studies of marginalized individuals in Mexico and the U S this book explores the colonizing concept of illiteracy as well as how the long social history of conquest and colonization plunder and globalization is inscribed in the personal histories of today's global outcasts Translation Studies
