Globalization And Identity Dialectics Of Flow And Closure:

Globalization and Identity, 1998

Globalization and Identity, 1998

Holding Worlds Together:

Ethnographies of Knowing and Belonging, Studies of globalization tend to foreground movements mobilities or flows while structures that remain stable and unchanged are often ignored This volume foregrounds the latter Discarding the term globalization for analytic purposes this volume suggests that the significance of globalizing processes is best understood as an experiential imaginary and epistemological dimension in people's lives The authors explore how meaningful relations are made when the socially local is not necessarily the geographically near and how connections are made and unmade that reach beyond the specificity of time and place Finally this volume is about the ways knowledge and received wisdom are challenged and recast through processes of re scaling and how the understanding of locality and identity are transformed as a result

Issues in the Contemporary Politics of Sub-Saharan Africa G. Harrison, 2002-06-19 Graham Harrison investigates contemporary African politics by privileging the dynamics of political struggle and resistance Through the analysis of peasant politics debt and structural adjustment democratization and identity politics the author shows the importance of resistance and agency Detailed studies of Mozambique Nigeria and Burkina Faso demonstrate how political organization and resistance have been closely ingrained in particular post colonial trajectories An original and refreshing approach to the study of African politics this will be a useful textbook for upper level undergraduates and postgraduate students

Ambiguous Pleasures Rachel Spronk, 2012 Among both male and female young urban professionals in Nairobi sexuality is a key to achieving a modern identity These young men and women see themselves as the avant garde of a new Africa while they also express the recurring worry of how to combine an African identity with the new lifestyles with which they are experimenting By focusing on public debates and their preoccupations with issues of African heritage gerontocratic power relations and conventional morality on the one hand and personal sexual relationships intimacy and self perceptions on the other this study works out the complexities of sexuality and culture in the context of modernity in an African society It moves beyond an investigation of a health or development perspective of sexuality and instead examines desire pleasure and eroticism revealing new insights into the methodology and theory of the study of sexuality within the social sciences

Sexuality serves as a prism for analysing how social developments generate new notions of self in postcolonial Kenya and is a crucial component towards understanding the way people recognize and deal with modern changes in their personal lives

Nigeria's Christian Revolution Richard Burgess, 2008-08-01 Nigeria has become the area of one of the most remarkable religious movements of recent times reflecting the shift in the global center of Christianity from the North to the South This book tells the story of one sector of this movement from its roots in the Nigerian civil war to the turn of the new millennium It describes a revival that occurred among the Igbo people of Eastern Nigeria and the new Pentecostal churches it generated and documents the changes that have occurred as the movement has responded to global flows and local demands As such it explores the nature of revivalist and Pentecostal experience but does so against the backdrop of local socio political and economic developments such as decolonization and civil war as well broader processes such as modernization and globalization

Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology R. Jon McGee, Richard L. Warms, 2013-08-28 Social and cultural anthropology and archaeology are rich subjects with deep connections in the social and physical sciences Over the past 150 years the subject matter and different theoretical perspectives have expanded so greatly that no single individual can command all of it Consequently both advanced students and professionals may be confronted with theoretical positions and names of theorists with whom they are only partially familiar if they have heard of them at all Students in particular are likely to turn to the web to find quick background information on theorists and theories However most web based information is inaccurate and or lacks depth Students and professionals need a source to provide a quick overview of a particular theory and theorist with just the basics the who what where how and why if you will In response SAGE Reference plans to publish the two volume Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology An Encyclopedia Features Benefits Two volumes containing approximately 335 signed entries provide users with the most authoritative and thorough reference resource available on anthropology theory both in terms of breadth and depth of coverage To ease navigation between and among related entries a Reader's Guide groups entries thematically and each entry is followed by Cross References In the electronic version the Reader's Guide combines with the Cross References and a detailed Index to provide robust search and browse capabilities An appendix with a Chronology of Anthropology Theory allows students to easily chart directions and trends in thought and theory from early times to the present Suggestions for Further Reading at the end of each entry and a Master Bibliography at the end guide readers to sources for more detailed research and discussion

Borders and Healers Tracy J. Luedke, Harry G. West, 2006-02-02 This important book contributes to understandings of the ways in which healing practices in southeast Africa mediate divides between the wealthy and the impoverished the traditional and the modern the local and the global

Rhythms and Rhymes of Life Miriam Gazzah, 2025-10-01 A study of the role of music and youth culture in the identification process of Dutch Moroccan youth

From Modern Myths to Global Encounters Anke van der Kwaak, Rachel Spronk, Karin Willemse, 2005 In western imagery Africa is a continent of static traditional societies that are incompatible with even antithetical to western progress and modernity This book looks into processes of change and transformation in Africa in the context of modernity and globalization showing the resilience rather than the expected demise of local cultures in Africa In this volume the persistent western modern myth is deconstructed Most contributions are from students of Peter Geschiere young Africanists from Africa and Europe from different disciplinary backgrounds including anthropology history political sciences and law Based on extensive fieldwork conducted during the last two decennia they reflect on the three main themes that are central to Geschiere's work African politics the modernity of witchcraft and the construction of communal identities in times of globalization These themes cover some of the most topical subjects currently debated in African studies not only by Geschiere but also by his close colleagues including Jean François Bayart Achille Mbembe and Jean and John Comaroff all known for being critical and cutting edge This critical attitude has inspired all of the contributions including that of the Latin Americanist Michiel Baud The aforementioned scholars have instigated debates on African politics in terms of Africanizing the state while occult forces witchcraft often being taken to be the hallmark of a traditional world view are understood as part and parcel of processes of modernization and nation state building Ethnic and religious identities intersected with gender class and generation prove to be important anchors of authenticity and autochthony in an era of globalization The personal reflections on the coming of age as Africanists as exemplified by the contributions of Geschiere's students in this volume have theoretical and methodological implications but also throw light on the anthropology of Africa in late twentieth century academia in The Netherlands From modern myths to global encounters is essential reading for students and scholars in African Studies Development Studies Political Science International Law Anthropology and History of Africa as well as for anyone interested in postcolonial African studies

Postcolonial Subjectivities in Africa Pnina Werbner, 2002 These essays on postcolonial subjectivities cross the frontiers of critical theory by illuminating the contradictory predicaments Africans confront in strikingly different parts of the continent at the start of the 21st century The focus is on the making of subjectivities as a process which is political a matter of subjugation to state authority moral reflected in the conscience and agency of subjects who bear rights duties and obligations and realised existentially in the subjects consciousness of their personal or intimate relations The notion of agency is interrogated without lapsing into the new Afro pessimism The essays recognise postcolonies troubled by state decline and increasing exploitation dispossession and marginalisation but avoid Afro pessimism's reduction of subjects to mere victims Even more against the grain of conventional postcolonial studies is the radical questioning of the force of modern subjectivism in struggles for control of identity autonomy and explicit consciousness and through artistic self fashioning in globally driven consumption With substantial cases based on autobiography personal experience and long term scholarly fieldwork in countries as diverse as Madagascar Kenya Uganda Sudan Botswana and Cameroon the book opens out a fresh field for comparative research and theory on postcolonial transformations in intersubjectivity This is to take seriously the people's perception so widespread in postcolonial Africa that to live life to the full is to live it in interdependence in conviviality if possible that care and respect for others indeed civility is a precious and indeed precarious condition of survival and as such is the object of recognised strategies for its conscious defence and that because significant others are opaque never being totally knowable uncertainty ambivalence and contingency are inescapable conditions of human existence

Identity and Difference in the Global Era Cândido Mendes, Enrique Rodríguez Larreta, 2002

Sikhism and Women Doris R. Jakobsh, 2010 Sikh identity involves intermeshing of several historical and present strands of consciousness As in other religions the situation of Sikh women and their experiences are conditioned by multiple factors including identity socio economic status and the political context The collection focuses on three distinct themes texts conditions of Sikh women in India and women in diasporic contexts dealing with women s lives and religious experiences The essays discuss the way aesthetics and religion merges in the unitary experience of the sacred in Sikh tradition They also explore gender in Sikh theology and society One of the first works of its kind to bring together women and being Sikh this volume engages with issues like religion rituals literature sexuality and nationalism and their link with identity formation of Sikh women It analyses significant issues of gender and religion and provides an empirical as well as theoretical structure to the debate In their introduction Doris Jakobsh and Eleanor Nesbitt explore the myriad themes of studies on Sikh women an emerging area for historians sociologists and anthropologists alike They outline major developments and also break new ground with empirical evidence from their research Africa Today

,2007 The Politics of Recognizing Difference R. D. Grillo,Jeff C. Pratt,2002 Despite the fact that this book was written before the 2001 Italian general elections the basic issues regarding multiculturalism and immigration policy undoubtedly remain of how Italians and immigrants view each other and how the Italian form of pluralism differs for example from Scandinavia s Convinced that social scientists can contribute to the sociopolitical agenda regarding difference Grillo and Pratt anthropology U of Sussex UK introduce 14 papers by European scholars offering case studies of topics including racism under Italian fascism immigrant participation in leftist politics official alternative and media presentations of immigrants local policies regarding female domestics and Italian and Senegalese Muslim perceptions of each other Includes a politico institutional map of Bologna Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Annual Report WOTRO.,2000

Global Subjects Jean-François Bayart,2007 In this new book Jean Fran ois Bayart offers a radically new account of globalization which challenges the way it is interpreted by neo liberals and by the anti globalization movement

Topographies of Globalization Valur Ingimundarson,Kristín Loftsdóttir,Irma Erlingsdóttir,2004 The term globalization has been used to describe the intensification of cross border flows whether in the realm of ideas culture finance trade or human mobility Like many other vital ideas such as nationalism and modernization globalization is fraught with controversy But no matter where one stands it is a site of an ongoing intellectual endeavor of definition interpretation and redefinition a contested terrain that continues to have profound if unequal impact on people s lives around the world Given the inherent tension between the global and local this phenomenon is perhaps more accurately explained by the conceptual hybrid globalization The diverse contributions in this volume are an attempt to come to grips with some of the implications of this process by problematizing and engaging it It grew out of an interdisciplinary conference on globalization held at the University of Iceland in late autumn 2002 as part of an international research project co ordinated by GERM Groupe d Etudes et de Recherches sur les Mondialisations involving a large group of academics universities and institutions The volume emphasizes specific aspects of the globalization debate politics culture gender and language translation One focus articulated among others by Zygmunt Bauman is on the reconfigurations of political power relationships between the West and the Rest the war on terror and conflict resolution whether in the name of peacekeeping nation building or identity changes Another theme involves the problematization of the culture concept its place in the public domain and the redefinition of identities as a result of globalization A third aspect deals with attempts to illuminate how globalization processes may deepen gender class and race inequalities in the absence of binding rules and collective social responsibility Finally the focus is on the changing attitudes toward language translation in a heavily mediatized and accelerated world
