John H. Saunders,2016-12-21 The Rhetorical Power of Children s Literature is an edited volume with contributions from established and new scholars of rhetoric offering case studies that analyze a full array of genres in children s literature from picture books to young adult novels Collectively this volume s contributions interrogate how children s literature is a powerful yet under examined space of rhetorical discourse that influences one of the most vulnerable segments of our population This book is singularly unique given that it will be the first collection of essays on children s literature from the distinct perspective of the field of Communication Beyond topical novelty the contributors utilize a range of scholarly methods to analyze instances of the rhetoric of children s literature Consequently essays in this volume may be read for both their specific topical content and as exemplars for multiple methodological approaches to the study of the rhetoric of children s literature Collectively the contributors set out to contribute to our knowledge of how instances of children s literature

operate as rhetorical discourses The volume is organized by case studies approached through critical rhetorical lenses that analyze specific instances of children's literature from two distinct stages of children's developmental reading experiences including pre-early literacy and fluent reading Structurally the book includes eight content chapters divided evenly with four chapters analyzing books for young children and four chapters analyzing books targeting audiences from late childhood to adolescence An overview of each content chapter accompanies this proposal

Facilitative Collaborative Knowledge Co-Construction Gertina J. van Schalkwyk, Rik Carl D'Amato, 2015-09-14 Collaborative teaching and learning has been a focus of research recently yet it can sometimes be a challenge for multicultural students in an educational setting This second volume of a two volume edition helps lecturers educators and teachers create collaborative teaching and learning experiences with multicultural adult learners in higher education The authors of this volume provide outlines of some of the positive relationships that can be developed among students and educators when the process of gaining knowledge is seen as a co-constructed process approaches to relational intelligence and collaborative learning research from neuropsychology and practical applications to teaching and characterizations of emotional intelligence and sociocognitive skills needed in collaborative learning environments Though focused on Asian students and their experiences this volume includes information for all students and educators who are engaged in the collaborative search for knowledge This is the 143rd volume of this Jossey Bass higher education series It offers a comprehensive range of ideas and techniques for improving college teaching based on the experience of seasoned instructors and the latest findings of educational and psychological researchers

Narrative and Metaphor in Education Michael Hanne, Anna A. Kaal, 2018-12-07 Human beings rely equally on narrative or storytelling and metaphor or analogy for making sense of the world Narrative and Metaphor in Education integrates the two perspectives of narrative and metaphor in educational theory and practice at every level from pre-school to lifelong civic education Bringing together outstanding educational researchers the book interweaves for the first time the rich strand of current research about how narrative may be used productively in education with more fragmentary research on the role of metaphor in education and invites readers to look both ways The book consists of research by 40 academics from many countries and disciplines describing and analysing the intricate connections between narrative and metaphor as they manifest themselves in many fields of education including concepts of education teacher identity and reflective practice teaching across cultures teaching science and history using digital and visual media in teaching fostering reconciliation in a postcolonial context special needs education civic and social education and educational policy making It is unique in combining study of the narrative perspective and the metaphor perspective and in exploring such a comprehensive range of topics in education Narrative and Metaphor in Education will be of great interest to academics and researchers in the fields of education and educational policy as well as teacher educators practising and future teachers It will also appeal to psychologists sociologists applied linguists and communications specialists
