Against the Grain Phil M. Williams, 2015-10-20 Against the Grain is the story of an orphaned teen growing up on a primitive farm in the Pennsylvania coal region He is homeschooled by his eccentric and philosophical great uncle who is a stickler for logic reason and intellectual honesty Despite his uncle's reverence for veracity inconsistencies arise regarding the old man's shady past and the teen's parents Through a harrowing sequence of events the teen is forced to attend a public school and a church The feral teen finds it difficult to cope with the hypocrisy propaganda and misinformation that adults and children so readily accept Faced with the possibility of expulsion arrest and ostracism he must make a choice Will the budding anarchist choose the easy lie or the hard truth
