Elements of Dawn; Early Poetry and Prose Michael Price, 2016-02-27 The universe is a poetic creation and we are the words Truth is too much to contain alike honey taken in moderation I have learned in my lifetime that youth is potent with the vital wellspring furthered into growth and maturity We all are potential awaiting to find our purpose in love and in life These early works are more abstract than my later ones which have taken time and challenge to create Day to day is structure goals noise and haste Yet my true hope is of a universal rediscovery of our similarities which bring love and happiness between all of us We are an earth so brimming in truth and beauty that such may overwhelm ourselves unless taken time and moderate increments Art is truly long and the time we have here is precious May you see the music of a sunset in wonder s vast splendor so there is our nature but a revolve from dawn of life to its sunset Not a soul is exempt from pain and tragedy in life yet the melody behind our perceptions always is playing toward our greater wellspring of love truth and beauty May creativity bloom aside our now technological advancements For they distance us and humanity need love Be at peace and happy Elements of Dawn; Early Poetry and Prose ,2015-10-22 The works you see within this book are alike a ripening vine just beginning to bud into fruit They are actually compilations of several works including poetry and short stories As if a reflection upon a mountain lake has its image of a mirror of the actual truth and beauty of the landscape Therefore we see life as a reflection in our individual grasp of truth and the reality therein So much is of this earth which is far greater than comprehension and we gather such like the fruits of a ripened vine Harvesting these earlier works is of a nature inscribed as the author intuitively senses this truth Enjoy them as a means to grow in spirit by which we live and learn of our shared beautiful universe Then we may love and bring the peace necessary to understand truth May you prevail in this now ever changing process of your nature The Poetry of Robert Browning Stopford A.
