Field Notes From A Hidden City An Urban Nature Diary:

Field Notes from a Hidden City Esther Woolfson, 2014-02-11 Field Notes From a Hidden City is set against the background of the austere grey and beautiful northeast Scottish city of Aberdeen In it Esther Woolfson examines the elements geographic atmospheric and environmental which bring diverse life forms to live in close proximity in cities Using the circumstances of her own life house garden and city she writes of the animals who live among us the birds gulls starlings pigeons sparrows and others the rats and squirrels the cetaceans the spiders and the insects In beautiful absorbing prose Woolfson describes the seasons the streets and the quiet places of her city over the course of a year which begins with the exceptional cold and snow of 2010 Influenced by her own long experience of corvids she considers prevailing attitudes towards the natural world urban and non urban wildlife the values we place on the lives of individual species and the ways in which man and creature live together in cities Natura Urbana Matthew Gandy, 2022-03-08 A study of urban nature that draws together different strands of urban ecology as well as insights derived from feminist posthuman and postcolonial thought Postindustrial transitions and changing cultures of nature have produced an unprecedented degree of fascination with urban biodiversity The other nature that flourishes in marginal urban spaces at one remove from the controlled contours of metropolitan nature is not the poor relation of rural flora and fauna Indeed these islands of biodiversity underline the porosity of the distinction between urban and rural In Natura Urbana Matthew Gandy explores urban nature as a multilayered material and symbolic entity through the lens of urban ecology and the parallel study of diverse cultures of nature at a global scale Gandy examines the articulation of alternative and in some cases counterhegemonic sources of knowledge about urban nature produced by artists writers scientists as well as curious citizens including voices seldom heard in environmental discourse The book is driven by Gandy s fascination with spontaneous forms of urban nature ranging from postindustrial wastelands brimming with life to the return of such predators as wolves and leopards on the urban fringe Gandy develops a critical synthesis between different strands of urban ecology and considers whether urban political ecology broadly defined might be imaginatively extended to take fuller account of both the historiography of the ecological sciences and recent insights derived from feminist posthuman and postcolonial thought City Creatures Gavin Van Horn, Dave Aftandilian, 2015-11-03 This anthology explores Chicago s surprisingly diverse wildlife through essays poetry paintings and photographs We usually think of cities as the domain of humans but we are just one of thousands of species that call the urban landscape home While Chicago residents are likely familiar with squirrels pigeons and dogs many would be surprised to learn about the leafhoppers and water bears black crowned night herons and bison beavers and massasauga rattlesnakes that are living alongside them City Creatures introduces readers these and other creatures through a variety of creative contributions Contributors bring a story based approach to this urban safari taking readers on birding expeditions to the Magic Hedge at Montrose Harbor on the North Side canoe trips down the South Fork of the Chicago River better known as

Bubbly Creek and insect collecting forays or restoration work days in the suburban forest preserves The book is organized into six sections each highlighting one type of place in which people might encounter animals in the city and suburbs For example schoolyard chickens and warrior wasps populate Backyard Diversity and a chorus of deep freeze frogs awaits in Water Worlds Its powerful combination of insightful narratives numinous poetry and full color art will help readers see the city and the creatures who share it with us in an entirely new light Ecolinguistics Arran Stibbe,2020-12-27 Ecolinguistics Language Ecology and the Stories We Live By is a ground breaking book which reveals the stories that underpin unequal and unsustainable societies and searches for inspirational forms of language that can help rebuild a kinder more ecological world This new edition has been updated and expanded to bring together the latest ecolinguistic studies with new theoretical insights and practical analyses The book presents a theoretical framework and practical tools for analysing the key texts which shape the society we live in The theory is illustrated through examples including the representation of environmental refugees in the media the construction of the selfish consumer in economics textbooks the parallels between climate change denial and coronavirus denial the erasure of nature in the Sustainable Development Goals creation myths and how they orient people towards the natural world and inspirational forms of language in nature writing Japanese haiku and Native American writing This edition provides an updated theoretical framework new example analyses and an additional chapter on narratives Accompanied by a free online course with videos PowerPoints notes and exercises www.storiesweliveby.org.uk as well as a comprehensive glossary this is essential reading for undergraduates postgraduates and researchers working in the areas of Discourse Analysis Environmental Studies and Communication Studies Christian Advocate and Journal and Zion's Herald ,1911 Journal of Field Archaeology Association for Field Archaeology,1995 The United States Army and Navy Journal and Gazette of the Regular and Volunteer Forces ,1905 Royal Institute of British Architects, Journal of the Royal Institute of British Architects Royal Institute of British Architects,1961-09 Landscape Journal ,1996 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1927 Environments: Notes and Selections on Objects, Spaces, and Behavior Stephen Friedman,Joseph B.
