Fifty Shades Of Grey Here :

Sexuality and Gender at Home Brent Pilkey, Rachael M. Scicluna, Ben Campkin, Barbara Penner, 2017-05-18 Sexuality and Gender at Home is the first book to explore the meanings and experiences of home through the framework of sexuality. Looking at a broad spectrum of sexuality, gender, and domesticity, it examines the many ways in which home is constructed, performed, and experienced in relation to sexuality and gender. Considering identity issues such as age, class, ethnicity, and gender, the authors problematize intimacy and question conventional ways of thinking about allegedly private home space. Comprehensive introductions to each of the book's three sections on Intimacy and Home, Queering Home, and Beyond Home provide a coherent overview of the existing literature as well as additional historical and cultural context. Fourteen chapters present ground-breaking research and insights into sexuality, gender, and home across culture, time, and space. Written by academics from a range of subject disciplines, chapters are based on research covering countries including Australia, France, Sweden, the UK, the USA, Guyana, Israel, and Singapore. This highly original text is the ideal starting point for anyone wishing to get to grips with the emerging field of sexuality, gender, and home and will particularly appeal to researchers and students in anthropology, architecture, gender studies, sociology, and human geography.

Romance Fandom in 21st-Century Pakistan Javaria Farooqui, 2024-10-31 Romance Fandom in 21st-century Pakistan offers the first major study of English-speaking romance fandom in South Asia, providing a new reader-centric model that engages with romance readers as genre experts. Javaria Farooqui inspects the popular Anglophone romance reading community in Pakistan and develops a model for analysing genre romance novels through the lens of the readers' perspective and preferences. Using focus group interviews and close textual analysis, Romance Fandom in 21st-century Pakistan explores where and how readers access books of their choice and explains why the detailed descriptions of dresses, food, and spaces in historical romance novels of the Regency era exemplify good taste for this distinctive readership. Sitting at the intersection of literary studies, genre studies, and fan studies, this book considers the reception of Anglophone romance fiction by reading communities of colour.

Culture and Medicine Rishi Goyal, Arden Hegele, 2022-10-20 Charting shared advances across the emerging fields of medical humanities and health humanities, this book engages with the question of how biomedical knowledge is constructed, negotiated, and circulated as a cultural practice. The volume is composed of a series of pathbreaking interdisciplinary essays that bring sociocultural habits of mind and modes of thought to the study of medicine, health, and patients. These juxtapositions create new forms of knowledge while emphasizing the vulnerability of human bodies, anti-essentialist approaches to biology, a sensitivity to language and rhetoric, and an attention to social justice. These essays dissect the ways that cultural practices define the limits of health and the body, from the body's place and trajectory in the world to how bodies relate to one another, from questions about ageing and sex to what counts as health and illness. Considering how these and other concepts are shaped by a negotiation between medico-scientific knowledge and ways of knowing derived from other domains, this book provides important new insights into how biomedical frameworks become settled forms for broader cultural understanding

Alice Guilluy, 2021-11-04 In Guilty Pleasures Alice Guilluy examines the reception of contemporary Hollywood romantic comedy by European audiences She offers a new look at the romantic comedy genre through a qualitative study of its consumption by actual audiences In doing so she attempts to challenge traditional critiques of the genre as trite escapism at best and dangerous guilty pleasure at worst Despite this cultural anxiety little work has been done on the genre's real audiences Guilluy addresses this gap by presenting the results of a major qualitative study of the genre's reception based on interview research with rom com viewers in Britain France and Germany focusing on Sweet Home Alabama 2002 dir Andy Tennant Throughout the interviews participants attempted to distance themselves from what they described as the typical rom com viewer the uneducated gullible overly emotional American woman Guilluy calls this fantasy figure the phantom spectatrix Guilluy complements this with a critical examination of the press reviews of the 20 biggest grossing rom coms at the worldwide box office in order to contextualise the findings of her audience research Between Us Mhairi
