

Fragmented shapes and crossing folds

Fragmented shapes and crossing folds are a key element in the design of the collection. The use of these elements creates a sense of movement and fluidity, which is reflected in the way the garments are constructed. The design is inspired by the way the body moves and the way the fabric responds to the body's form. The use of fragmented shapes and crossing folds creates a sense of depth and texture, which is reflected in the way the garments are constructed.
