Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning Richard Colwell, Music Educators National Conference (U.S.), 1992

Policy and the Political Life of Music Education Patrick Schmidt, Richard Colwell, 2017-02-01

Policy and the Political Life of Music Education is the first book of its kind in the field of Music Education It offers a far reaching and innovative outlook bringing together expert voices who provide a multifaceted and global set of insights into a critical arena for action today policy On one hand the book helps the novice to make sense of what policy is how it functions and how it is discussed in various parts of the world while on the other it offers the experienced educator a set of critically written analyses that outline the state of the play of music education policy thinking As policy participation remains largely underexplored in music education the book helps to clarify to teachers how policy thinking does shape educational action and directly influences the nature extent and impact of our programs The goal is to help readers understand the complexities of policy and to become better skilled in how to think speak and act in policy terms The book provides new ways to understand and therefore imagine policy approximating it to the lives of educators and highlighting its importance and impact This is an essential read for anyone interested in change and how to better understand decision making within music and education Finally this book while aimed at the growth of music educators knowledge base regarding policy also fosters open thinking regarding policy as subject helping educators straddling arts and education to recognize that policy thinking can offer creative designs for educational change

Ipsative Assessment G. Hughes, 2014-05-07 Ipsative assessment is a powerful new approach that provokes a radical rethink of the purposes and methods of assessment This book presents a case for partially replacing competitive assessment with ipsative assessment and it explores the possibilities and the challenges with research evidence and case studies
