Global Television Formats Understanding Television Across Borders:

Global Television Formats Sharon Shahaf, Tasha Oren, 2013-06-17 Global Television Formats aims to revise the place of the global in television studies. The essays gathered here explore the diversity of global programming and approaches and ask how to theorize contemporary global formats and thus re-shape our understanding of television as at once a shared global and specific local text, an economic system, a socio-political institution and a popular practice. The contributors explore a wide array of television programming from the Middle East, Western and Eastern Europe, South Asia, North America, Latin America and Brazil and represent a broad range of perspectives.

The SAGE Handbook of Television Studies Manuel Alvarado, Milly Buonanno, Herman Gray, Toby Miller, 2014-12-09 Genuinely transnational in content as sensitive to the importance of production as consumption, covering the full range of approaches from political economy to textual analysis and written by a star-studded cast of contributors, The SAGE Handbook of Television Studies is a first-rate and wide-ranging volume that reframes television studies afresh, boldly synthesising debates in the humanities, cultural studies and social sciences. This volume should be in every library and media scholar's bookshelf. Professor Ravi Sundaram, Centre for the Study of Developing Societies. Bringing together a truly international spread of contributors from across the UK, US, South America, Mexico and Australia, this Handbook charts the field of television studies from issues of ownership and regulation through to reception and consumption. Separate chapters are dedicated to examining the roles of journalists, writers, cinematographers, producers and manufacturers in the production process, whilst others explore different formats including sport, novella and soap opera, news and current affairs, music and reality TV. The final section analyses the pivotal role played by audiences in the contexts of gender, race and class and spans a range of topics from effects studies to audience consumption. The SAGE Handbook of Television Studies is an essential reference work for all advanced undergraduates, graduate students and academics across broadcasting, mass communication and media studies.

The Routledge Companion to Media Industries Paul McDonald, 2021-10-04 Bringing together 49 chapters from leading experts in media industries research, this major collection offers an authoritative overview of the current state of scholarship while setting out proposals for expanding, rethinking and innovating the field. Media industries occupy a central place in modern societies, producing, circulating and presenting the multitude of cultural forms and experiences we encounter in our daily lives. The chapters in this volume begin by outlining key conceptual and critical perspectives while also presenting original interventions to prompt new lines of inquiry. Other chapters then examine the impact of digitalization on the media industries, intersections formed between industries or across geographic territories and the practices of doing media industries research and teaching. General ideas and arguments are illustrated through specific examples and case studies drawn from a range of media sectors including advertising, publishing, comics, news, music, film, television, branded entertainment, live cinema experiences, social media and music video. Making a vital and significant contribution to media research, this volume is essential reading for students and academics seeking to understand and evaluate the work of the media industries Chapter 10 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> Television Histories in Asia Jinna Tay, Graeme Turner, 2015-07-24 This book presents an analysis of television histories across India China Taiwan Singapore Indonesia Japan Hong Kong the Philippines Malaysia and Bhutan It offers a set of standard data on the history of television's cultural industrial and political structures in each specific national context allowing for cross regional comparative analysis Each chapter presents a case study on a salient aspect of contemporary television culture of the nation in question such as analyses of ideology in television content in Japan and Singapore and transformations of industry structure vis vis state versus market control in China and Taiwan The book provides a comprehensive overview of TV histories in Asia as well as a survey of current issues and concerns in Asian television cultures and their social and political impact Mediated Geographies and Geographies of Media Susan P.
