The Global Turn Ulf Hedetoft, 2003 Persistent rumour has it that globalization is doing serious damage to the nation state at the present historical juncture Dramatic versions of the narrative even insist that the challenge of globalization to the nation state is so serious that this pivotal unit of the international system is in danger of disappearing In this book Ulf Hedetoft focuses attention on this Global National nexus in some of its many differing manifestations offering both theoretical historical and analytical thoughts and perspectives on a problem which increasingly dominates academic and public debates He argues that it makes sense to talk about a Global Turn in international studies a change which might be as profound and consequential as the well known linguistic turn in the study of society and politics This does not mean that globalization spearheaded by the USA is ousting the nation state from the global scene In fact the global order needs nation states although their position will be radically different and their sovereignty except for a few cases without much substance Populist and romantic nationalism notwithstanding there is no going back to an earlier and more virginal state of national political or cultural history In this sense globalization is irreversible Whether we like it or not the Global Turn is here for good *Is COVID-19 a Global Turning Point? that quite often masquerade as progressive ideals These illusions lead us not towards a brighter future but back into the shadows of the past This book critically examines various manifestations of these regressive tendencies including the rise of far right politics the contradictions of woke capitalism and the decay of utopian thinking in the age of AI Maiwald weaves together insights from philosophy critical theory and psychoanalysis to expose the underlying mechanisms of our current social and political malaise More than a mere critique Regressive Illusions advocates for understanding the necessity of certain illusions while calling for a renewed capacity for critical thinking in the face of crisis

Global Financial Issues, 2010 ,2010 Global Orders and Civilizations Sadik Ünay,Muzaffer Şenel,2009 The explosion of new themes and working areas in social sciences in the aftermath of the Cold War stimulated the cultural turn of the previous decades and strengthened the position of the notion of civilization as a unit of analysis and locus of academic debate in the fields of history philosophy sociology political science and international relations Given the fabricated and standardized nature of recent literature on political economic and socio cultural aspects of globalization it is crystal clear that historically and philosophically enlightened works written from the perspective of civilizational transformation will provide the much needed sophistication to conventional social science analyses trying to elucidate the organizing principles of the global order This novel collection represents a path breaking work in the field of global civilizational studies by constituting an interdisciplinary and theoretically informed platform on which complex debates on the political economic socio cultural philosophical and ecological aspects of the global order could be conducted The editors Sadik Ünay and Muzaffer Şenel managed to gather a truly original collection of articles from some of the leading authorities and promising academics on the theme of global orders with special reference to a civilization transformation covering a wide spectrum in time and space from Antique Greece to the Islamic World from Europe to the US and from East Asian history to current globalizations Publisher s description
