Globalization At What Price Economic Change And Daily Life:

Globalization at what Price? Pamela Brubaker, 2007 Brubaker explains the dynamics of globalization and the ways this issue affects our daily lives and the lives of others She identifies the ethical questions the global economy raises and she lifts up the resources that Christian faith offers to equip people to work for economic justice Drawing from Scripture as well as her many experiences with people around the globe and exploring successful economic justice efforts she provides options for addressing this critical topic This revised and expanded edition includes updated statistics and the state of the debate on globalization new stories from recent experiences in Guatemala Thailand Hong Kong and Brazil and an updated report on the work of the World Council of Churches BOOK JACKET Justice in a Global Economy Pamela Brubaker, Rebecca Todd Peters, Laura A. Stivers, 2006-01-01 Today's complex social and economic problems leave many people in the affluent world feeling either overwhelmed or ambivalent Even the small percentage of us who have examined the ethics behind our financial decisions and overcome the often deterring factors of self interest rarely know what to do to make any difference By providing tools for examination and concrete actions for individuals communities and society at large Justice in a Global Economy guides its readers through many of today's complex societal issues including land use immigration corporate accountability and environmental and economic justice Beginning with a basic introduction to the impact of economic globalization the book provides both critical assessments of the current political economic structures and examples of people and communities who are actively working to transform society Each chapter concludes with questions for discussion and reflection Colonialism, Han, and the Transformative Spirit Grace Ji-Sun Kim, 2013-04-18 Globalism colonialism and consumerism have caused unjust suffering han for the earth's exploited peoples and the exploited lands To reverse this tragedy we need to work for a safer sustainable planet and renew our inspiration from God as the transforming Spirit who gives sustains and empowers life to all Women and Interreligious Dialogue Catherine Cornille, Jillian Maxey, 2013-09-26 Though women have been objects more often than subjects of interreligious dialogue they have nevertheless contributed in significant ways to the dialogue just as the dialogue has also contributed to their own self understanding This volume the fifth in the Interreligious Dialogue Series brings together historical critical and constructive approaches to the role of women in the dialogue between religions These approaches deal with concrete examples of women's involvement in dialogue critical reflections on the representation of women in dialogue and the important question of what women might bring to the dialogue Together they open up new avenues for reflection on the nature and purpose of interreligious dialogue Theology that Matters Darby Kathleen Ray, What difference does theological thinking make Does Christianity have any relevance for our secular globalized environmentally threatened world Specifically formulated for undergraduate and seminary courses in theology this volume answers a resounding yes Gathering many respected and original Christian thinkers who have been inspired by the example and work of theologian Sallie McFague this book engages such topics as God Christ revelation eschatology and church in three intertwined and pressing areas 1 our religious life and language in a secularized pluralistic society 2 our newly globalized economic life and 3 our threatened environmental life Burning Center, Porous Borders Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2011-10-17 Burning Center Porous Borders articulates what the church is and is called to be about in the world a world now globalized to the point that the local is lived globally and the global is lived locally The church must respond creatively and prophetically to the challenges economic disparity war and terrorism diaspora ecological threat health crisis religious diversity and so on posed by our highly globalized world It can do so only if the church's spiritual center burns mightily Conversely it can burn mightily in the spirit of Christ only if its borders are porous and allows the fresh air spirit of change to blow in and out While there is much rhetoric about change the most common response to change is to continue doing business as usual This is particularly the case in the face of perceived global threats In spite of the hoopla and euphoria of the global village walls of division and exclusion are rising hearts are constricting and moral imagination shrinking In response to this context Burning Center Porous Borders proposes alternative ways or images of being a church burning center and porous borders wall buster and bridge builder translocal glocal mending healer radical hospitality community of the earth spirit household of life abundant dialogians of life and community of hope In Burning Center Porous Borders congregational vitality and progressive praxis kiss and embrace Human Trafficking in Thailand Siroj Sorajjakool, 2013-10-15 Few subjects elicit greater moral outrage than human trafficking Media reports of dehumanizing practices such as slavery abduction child prostitution and torture along with shocking statistics form the basis of public knowledge Those who work closely with victims acknowledge the complexity of the issue and it is this complexity rather than loose statistics and conjecture that deserves our attention With sensitivity and candor this book addresses the reality of human trafficking in Thailand dissecting studies presenting facts and dismissing stereotypes It focuses on the areas of fishing agriculture domestic work sex work and the trafficking of children weaving individual narratives and official studies into the wider history of Thailand's changing economy and labor situation It also details how the Thai government has addressed the issue reflects on the roots of human exploitation and suggests a way forward This book raises much needed awareness of commonly held misconceptions and clarifies what we know and what we have yet to discover about the trafficking of persons to and from Thailand Highlights Concise and accessible study of the reality of human trafficking in Thailand Thorough critical analysis of current policies and public discourse on trafficking Details relevant Thai and international laws Discusses the relationship between the modern economic system and exploitation Analyzes the changing face of the Thai labor market and the impact of industrialization on the Thai population Globalization Robert Goehlert, 2003 The New Globalization Richard W. Gillett, 2005 The New Globalization is a book about globalization what it is where it seems to be headed what it means for the social and economic well being of the people of planet Earth and how the Christian community is already responding But it is also about our own Christian history of 2000 years and the surprising wealth of relevance and power it carries for our current struggles To reclaim this lost ground of Christian social tradition is of primary importance to the success of our prophetic engagement today and in the future Reflection points questions are included in each chapter to help prompt discussion in church and classroom settings A Socio-political Agenda for the Twenty-first Century Zimbabwean Church Jimmy G. Dube,2006 This book deals primarily with the interface between religion and politics in the public square in Africa generally and specifically Zimbabwe It is argued that Christian religion has a huge potential of democratizing the contemporary Zimbabwean social and political arena The focus of this book is the argument for a contextual theology that takes into consideration both social and political realities in the creation of democratic spaces Ethics in the Global Village Jack A. Johnson-Hill,2008 Jack Hill connects the dots between what Jesus said long ago and what we experience now in a radically new way by linking the voice of Jesus to unheard voices of contemporary largely marginalised social and political movements AfroGEEKS Anna Everett,Amber J. Wallace,2007 West Virginia Law Review ,2011 Same-sex Marriage? Marvin Mahan Ellison,2004 Extending the right to marry to same sex couples is frontpage news and hotly contested in both church and society This critical book is written by a gay man and progressive Christian ethicist who places justice making at the heart of contemporary spirituality In dialogue with both legal scholars and theologians Ellison examines the strengths and weaknesses of how marriage traditionalists advocates of same sex marriage and LGBT lesbian bisexual gay transgender critics of marriage analyze the issues and frame their arguments The book offers constructive proposals for revitalizing Christian sexual ethics and moving the debate forward regardless of whether the right to marry is won or lost

Beyond Christendom Jehu Hanciles,2008 Hanciles does yeoman work in part one synthesizing studies on the impact of globalization revealing that its outcomes will likely not be determined by the Euro American heartlands that sparked this movement Instead in parts two he shows that migration in general is having an enormous effect on shaping a new world order and in part three Mobile Faith he advances the case for the migration of Christians as carrying within it the seeds of renewal for the whole church and also the potential to reshape church state and religion and culture relations globally
